FLAT-OUT LIKE...

Speaking of history, we know how the Lizard got his name- or do we? To add to the record I quote from a statement of March 1966 (eleven years closer to the event)

"A great habit among Manly men was to sunbake in the area above Manly Life Saving Club. A big bunch of fellows was doing just this on the particular Saturday that gave birth to the Lizards.

One of the Sun-Absorbers was Bill Howard, later to become President and Life member of the Manly Civic Club. Another regular Sunbaker was the then Mine Host of the Hotel Steyne, Leon List.

Leon had a habit of spitting while taking in the sun and Bill Howard was aware of this. He was also aware that the beer, terribly scarce in those days, was about to come on at the Steyne. He was soon headed for the Saloon Bar. (Yes, Bill used to drink beer in those days). While partaking of his lation for the day Greta, dispenser, asked Bill if he had seen the Boss at the Beach. "Yes" answered Bill. "He is down there spitting like a Lizard".

This remark was widely heard and by the time Leon List was back at work, it was all over the Steyne. Said one bloke to another: "Did you hear that Bill Howard called the Publican a Spitting Lizard?". This name was soon abbreviated to the Lizard and it stuck to him. Shortly afterwards, a few drinkers from the Steyne had a social game of Golf, and they enjoyed it so much they decided to make the game a regular thing and to play every month.

A club was formed with Headquarters at the Steyne and the natural name to call such an organisation was The Lizard Golf Club. With a Committee and proper organisation, Bill Howard was the first Patron.
