Excerpts

from "LIZARDS GOLF CLUB.
The First THIRTY YEARS" published
February 1977.

LEON LIST - FOUNDER.

1946: Leon List, Mine Host of the Steyne Hotel, Sportsman and Man about Manly, enjoyed his golf. His friends, with a taste for ale and alliteration, had dubbed him: 'Lizard'. In their company, many a good walk around Avalon Golf Course was spoiled and a drop or two spilled. So much did the friends enjoy these outings that they decided to formalise matters and 'make a regular thing of it'. In short - to form a golf club. What better name than 'Lizards' to honour Mine Host. And that was the beginning.

1946-63: In reminiscing, Lance Try L.M. recalls the men of the beginning as 'A few fellers who got together and did things'. They cannot be better described, nor can the comforts they ignored as the price for each others' company be better rewarded than with the continuing chain forged from those first strong links.

LAIR WITH DENIZENS CONSUMING PREY.

1963: Even the best of friends at times must part and the numbers had thinned alarmingly. Something had to be done to save the Club. The men with the drive, foresight and knowhow were Col McClellan, Lance Try, George Russell, Ron Allum, Sandy Armstrong, Harry Crang and Bill Sheehan; and to them every modern Lizard must give thanks. Using the Manly Civic Club as a base, they reviewed the old ideas, retaining the good and discarding those no longer useful. They canvassed ideas and working members and from their work was laid the foundation upon which a strong club would prosper.

A few words

Thanks to all Committee Members and Members for their co-operation during the year.

Hope we have a better year next time.

Club Secretary.

My thanks to the Committee and Members for their advice and assistance throughout the year. A welcome to the three new members of the Club. Their joining reflects on the efforts of the past Committee and the spirit of the Club itself. The Lizards Golf Club can look forward to its 46th consecutive year.

Captain/Handicapper.

Fellow Lizards.

As my year as President draws to an end, I have been required, as one of my final duties, to write a few lines for inclusion in our annual report.

This has proven to be my most difficult task in office.

In just a few words I have found it impossible to adequately express my appreciation to the outgoing Committee for their support over the year. Their efforts have made my job so much the easier and our days at Avalon so much the more enjoyable.

In just a few words, also, I cannot pay enough tribute to the members and their guests at our golf days for the spirit of involvement because I believe it is the spirit that has made the Lizards the happiest and longest running social golf club in our district (with daylight second). When I rejoin the rank and file after presenting the Paddle at our annual general meeting it will be the end of a year I have thoroughly enjoyed but it will also be the start of another I intend to enjoy even more.

Good Golfing.
