President's Report

I hope that fellow Lizards have enjoyed their year as much as I have mine as President. I still feel somewhat a new boy in this group of description-defying golfers. However, I had plenty of support to ensure that I did not run too much amok.

My thanks to the real workers, Bill Epps LM for the Flat Out Like, Andy Warner LM for keeping the fines coming in with a laugh, Postie LM for keeping us financial, Garry Bird LM for general support and keeping the books, Bill Sheehan LM for his cooking skills, Stretch, Wal and Hart for keeping us fed and watered, Chris Mooney for looking after the "downers" and the web site, and Manfred Wagner, supported by Col Lacey, who gave us something to complain about every month with their handicapping. Thanks also to the rest of you for the general support that ensures the club remains a going concern.

The monthly trips to Avalon provided many good golf shots, including two holes-in-one, and of course many more poor shots and "airies" that help to make the third Sunday of the month an essential entry in all our calendars. Our trips to Port Macquarie, Jamberoo and Mangrove Mountain were well supported and, as usual, a lot of fun.

We had a good sprinkling of visitors over the year, but can always welcome more, with the hope that they will want to become full members. See if we can increase membership over the next year.

Thanks again for all your support and friendship, and good golfing.

Neil Winterton
President.
