President's Report 2009/10

My Fellow Lizards

This has been a year of change, with the club moving from Avalon (due our shed being turned into a storage area for buggies) to North Turramurra. To Balgowlah RSL for the AGM from Dee Why RSL.

With all this our golf handicaps having been dropping due to playing on a better course. Another feature is Wal's breakfasts for a donation you can have burnt or extra burnt bacon & eggs. Congratulations to all the trophy winners. The trips away were reasonably attended; however the weather wasn't kind to us at Kew and Port Macquarie.

Thanks to Treasurer Michael M. Handicappers Neil W and Manfred W. Dobber Andrew W. Baggage men Glenn & Wal in Bill Sheehan LM's absence and Editor Chris Mooney.

Also, thank you to the regular members who turn up every month and try to bring along a visitor or two. "The Lizard" has remained relatively safe after missing the first two months of my term as President.

Regards
Brian Ellis
President 2009-2010

Treasurer's Report 2009/10

Gentlemen, I am happy to announce that the Lizards Golf Club turned a modest profit of just over $412.65 this financial year, leaving us with a balance of $1,079.65 in the bank. This is mainly due to a couple of bumper attendance months in November and June.

The move from Avalon to North Turramurra saw the golf fees increase from $21.00 to $29.00 which necessitated an increase in the monthly fees from $45.00 to $50.00. I don't see any need to increase this further for the upcoming year.

The annual subscriptions will remain at their current levels of $10.00 for members and $5.00 for country and overseas members. Please note these are due on July 2010 or the first month attended. Members who play whilst unfinancial will be deemed to be amongst the visitors ranks for the day.

Our income and expenditures for the year were:
