

Greetings Lizards and Guests on this wonderful golfing day. This beautiful sunny day, this dull overcast day, this drizzly damp day, this bloody wet and windy day (~~CROSS OUT THAT WHICH IS NOT APPLICABLE~~), will test your golfing ability.

The game to-day is----

- (1) Lizards versus Cricket Club. In view of the fact that Matt Little is secretary of both clubs, your editor thought it would be unfair to the CRICKET CLUB to cross his name off the Lizards team and put it on the cricket side, but he did ~~just~~ this!
- (2) Lowest putting total score.
- (3) Nearest the pin 4th and 17th.

May the best man, or the luckiest win.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

- (1) The Hole in One Insurance Tin. This was opened by HON. SEC. TREAS. in the presence of Presso Sid. The result after much acrimony, was $33.10. The acrimony was caused by the presence of one dud 20c coin. Look around you--see who's blushing. Anyway the high principles of Sid versus the high principles of Matt resulted in agreement to invest it in 10. 7 machine at the Civic Club---they got four Jokers. It is not known whether the $100 win is included in the above tin amount.

YEARLY SUBS. The $2.10 subscription was paid by exactly 13 members--- Is your conscience clear?

In this regard it must be mentioned that members become unfinancial if they don't pay by the end of August. It must also be mentioned that at the last committee meeting it was resolved that members be invited to sit in on future committee meetings if they wish.

This privilege of course only applies to financial members-- just think of the thrilling experience you might miss, SO PAY UP.

TRUE STORY SECTION.

TOM BEER tells that in the misty past he hit a ball off No. 2 TEE at Avalon. He hit it so hard that it landed on the top of the palm tree near the hole.

He further avers that but for the fact that the treetop was in the way, and that there was a headwind, it would have landed on the school roof just a little further down.

Anyway it stopped up the top of the tree.

A Lizard spotted the egg, climbed the tree and sat on it to hatch it out.

The resultant animal was most peculiar because of its mixed parentage--it had.--

1. The body of a lizard.
2. A round white, corrugated head like a golf ball.
3. A bloody big mouth.

Paul Hennessey had a sad experience last meeting. He landed in the rough--it took two strokes to get him out--one Airy and one broken 7 Iron.

Lance Try paid his dues last month with a 1937 £1 note. It had milow all over it. It is suspected that Decimal Currency is forcing Lance to unload his Black Market Box. Discreet members can expect to receive one £2 note for $1.

It is understood that one member yelled blue murder last meeting because of the shortage of meat.

Has Bluey ever considered feeding not only his dogs with cheap meat but also his racehorse and trotter.
