

Again you bloody lucky Lizards, you've got a perfect day for golf. It is a lovely hot sunny day, just right for drinking lovely cold beer straight from the keg. There will be some bottled beer for those who prefer it.

The main prize to-day is the Captain Handicapper's trophy. It is understood that Les Garlick wants to win this event, to save him laying out the money for it, and that all the blokes who beat him won't stand a chance for the next ten years.

Nearest the pins will be 8th and 10th.
Usual lowest putting prize.

At the last committee meeting the question was raised of whether two types of beer should be provided, because of the fact that 2 kegs were returned to the Club partly full for credit--Lets have your opinions---Old or New??

With this report is the written unwritten constitution of the Lizards. It is proposed to amend these rules. Your views will be welcomed, and if sensible, which is unlikely will be discussed at the A.G.M.

At this Lizards meeting, we have great pleasure in introducing two new Lizards--Gordon Ball and Peter Howe. They are both cricketers. They will both probably get golf scores as good as good batsmen get.

When you Hon. Editor (Hon. means Honorary, (no Pay), not Honorable) was at the committee meeting he was drinking whisky--when he was writing this at home he was drinking rum, and consequently he was not able to understand this note he had made--"Capt Hand wins, Des wins--(new potatoes)". If any Lizard can elucidate he will receive an honorable mention in next "flat out like".

As you know, there will be no December meeting.

Captain-Handicappers report.

1. The Captain-Handicapper reports that whilst it was nice to see Gordon Donald and John Tilley take out the Cuff Link Sets, at the October meeting it was even better that they received also a clock as the Jimmy Howe Trophy. The clocks will do nicely to time the length of wear left in the cuff links sets, and it is hoped that the clocks will run for at least three years because that's how long the cuff links sets will have to last before they are in the race to win another set.
2. Peter Allens consistency makes him a good sound bet on the tote at any time.
3. Pity Bob Griffiths has not been able to make the last two meetings, his tentative handicap has been 18 during this period, however, there has been a hardening of the heart over the last month and this is now very much reduced.
4. It is not known whether the course is getting shorter, the holes getting bigger or whether there are secret training sessions taking place, but the fact remains that the standard of golf is steadily improving all round, even the handicapper can't pick a winner on the tote and will not be purchasing a new car this year as a consequence.

5. It is pleasing to note that cards are being worked in a much better fashion these days and is very much appreciated by the poor B-s who have the task of producing the winner in a very limited time.

A CASE OF MISTAKEN IDENTITY.

When Col McClelland joined the Lizards some years back, Lance Try told him that it was the tradition to insult fellow Lizards at every opportunity.

Col did'nø know all the Lizards but at the end of the game he was walking off the course followed by a huge cove who could have put Bob Humphries in his pocket-

Col turned to him and said, "How d'you go you soppy big bastard?"
"I beg your pardon"

"I said How d'you go, you soppy big bastard"

Then Col thought that he had better check. He said "Are you a Lizard".

The big bloke gave Col a queer look and walked away very rapidly. He apparently thought the same as the rest of us.

But he's done it again !!!

He was talking to me at the bar in the club a short while back and decided to go and comb his hair. As he was walking by the fish tanks he saw the reflection of a shortish, baldish, stoutish chap who was following him.

Col said without looking round, "What are you following me for you bald headed bastard"

He got no reply so followed up with "are you deaf as well as dumb you bloody fool"

He then looked round and saw a total stranger.

"I'm very sorry I thought you were Jimmy Howe"

"Yer want to watch it mate, else I might do yer over"
