Today's Competition will be for individual stableford for the "Jim Howe Trophy" with prizes for Nearest the Pin at the 4th and 10th holes. There will also be a special trophy for a Secret Nine. One of the prize winners may be able to win the last remaining pair of Lizards cuff links!

KNOCKOUT COMPETITION: The semi-finals for the "Sandy Armstrong Trophy" will be played today, the draw being:

John Atkins (21) 7-2 v Arthur Levy (18) 3-1

The bracketed figures are, of course, their tournament handicaps, and the betting odds laid by TAB McGuire are shown alongside. Place your bets NOW with Des and re-invest your winnings with George (Kaffles) Russell.

FEBRUARY LIZARDS GOLF DAY was President's Day and was attended by 26 Lizards and 6 visitors. The results were:

1st. Charles Park (26) 43 points
2nd. Kelvin Elvy (20) 43 "
3rd. John Tilley (24) 41 "

Visitors Trophy: Barry Harrington (38) 45 points

Nearest the Pin at the 1st: Wal Reynolds

Nearest the Pin at the 14th: Charles Park

The "Bradman Trophy" was won by last month's champion, Jim Howe, who, playing off his new handicap (permanent) of 30 (instead of 54) finished up with 25 points.

The President's Trophy was won by Charles Park.

"Bluey" Cane welcomed the visitors and regular visitor, George Luke, made an appropriate reply.

NEWS IN SHORT PANTS

Bluey Cane has bought a property at Richmond and will be training trotters. He says he is taking up racing to get away from the rate race (and breathalysers)!

Speaking of breathalysers, name the Lizards (M.L., J.R., & G.R.) who went home by taxi last month . .

Bob Parker turned up in February, this being reported as his first time for four years. He's obviously not a regular Lizard as it doesn't take most of us more than a month to recover from a Lizards Golf Day.

Name the Lizard (A.L.) who turned up last month with a new Holden Monaro. It is a coincidence that most Lizard Treasurers manage to get a new luxury car during their term of office. Ex-Treasurer Col McLellan managed to get two new cars during the year he was in office! We should have no trouble in getting nominations for treasurer at our next elections.

Have another look at last month's winners. Did you notice that 1st, 2nd and 3rd places were won by Committee members? We can expect a record number of nominations for committee next year.

Treasurer Arthur Levy reports that our cash position stands at $132.99 credit. Looks like we lost 1¢ somewhere.

Any Lizard who has not yet received a name badge should contact Arthur Levy who will arrange to get one for him.

Mat Little is arranging a cricket match - Manly Civic Club vs The Lizards - to be held on Sunday, 23rd March (next Sunday), 10 a.m. We are told that the venue is Sadistic Park 9, Passmore Reserve, Campbell Parade, Manly Vale, or some similarly named arena. More details are on the Civic Club Notice Board, so check your names there.

Bluey Cane has now been transferred to our country membership list thus leaving a vacancy now for one full member. If You know of anyone you would like to have join The Lizards, see Secretary Arthur.

Caterer Eric MacMeechan, in addition to steak, eggs, sausages, liverwurst, bread, butter, cheese, onions, salami, devon, etc. and Old and New beer, has arranged to supply approximately four (4) gallons of Orchy for the benefit of the few non-old and new drinkers. In spite of this additional item on the menu today's all-in cost remains at $3.00 per head.

Captain Paul Hennessy has available for sale to The Lizards a top quality unbranded golf ball. It is reported that these were specially made for the Lizards as they won't roll under rocks. Stock up while they last at the incredibly low cost of 50c each. You can't get 'em cheaper anywhere in Sydney.

Don Volus was overheard commenting that he was born in Londonderry. Would this have some connection with "Air" or "Aireys"? Or "Hark Herald Angels Swing"?

Mat Little says "To be a golfer you've got to be consistent". Mat had one Airey, lost 2 balls and got 30 points on 50 handicap. He also lost his ball at the 18th and found 3 others. Is this consistent?

Jim Howe was reported to be playing golf last Tuesday afternoon. He wasn't on holiday - he was working to get his 30 handicap down, or was it up?

New Lizard Kevin Lawler had a good hole on the 18th last month. His first went over the fence, his third was an Airey, his fourth went into the rough and he didn't get a "5 a 1".

Baggage man Lance Try is unable to explain why the old beer was frozen solid last month. You will note that it was not Resch's new which can be drunk till Hell freezes over!

Caterer Eric MacMeechan was noted to be wearing a new hat last month. It is reported he only had it on appro from David Jones and would be returning it hardly used

Did you know that the average real estate mortgage runs about 20 years, which gives the owner time, if he works on it every week-end, to get the place in shape to sell?

THE LIZARDS GOLF DAY set down for 18th May will be, in addition to the individual events, a competition against St. Augustine's. This will consist of a team event won on the best aggregate stableford points. It is not known yet exactly how many St. Augustine players will be competing, but they will be matched by an equal number of Lizards who have the lowest handicaps on the day. A very special trophy is being made up by Sydney's leading jewellers - so start now, practise up your golf so that we can try to have The Lizards' name on the trophy first up.

Happy Golfing, Customers, and drive safely!

Charles Park, Editor.
