

Greetings Lizards & your guests, & also to any golfers amongst you.

Today's event will be for the once in a lifetime, Dave Treharne Terrific Trophy. It is anticipated that this trophy will consist of a length of unusable, worn out, rusty anchor chain, welded into any shape the winner desires. It is also anticipated that the winner will choose a serpentine shape to fit in with his crafty, cunning character.

Those one or two amongst you who can think, will have realised that today, being the last event of the year, will probably decide the winners of the (1) Points score, (2) Eclectic (3) Best & Fairest (4) Most popular player.

Your Honest, Honourable Editor, being a kindly but determined man, has decided to win today. He will win the events 1&2, by getting a couple of holes-in-one, one or two eagles (on the 5th & 7th) a few birdies, & the rest in par.

He is too modest to suggest who will win events 3 & 4.

Q. Have you ever smoked pot? Its the dreamiest.

Nearest the Pins. This is being written before the committee meeting, when the C.H. will announce the N.P.'s. As mentioned last month if he persists in sticking to the 1st & 17th, there will be sabotage. The N.P.'s. will be any two of the 1st, 4th, 8th, 9th, 10th, 13th, 17th & 18th. So all take out your little flags & stake your claims. Then let him sort out the mess.

The first reason for this schemery is to prove that w are democratic. This is GOOD.

The second reason is to get some of our own back on this incompetent, illiterate dolt. This is also GOOD.

The third reason is to make him so frustrated & annoyed that he won't stand for C.H. next year. This is easily the MOST GOODEST.

Last Months Results. R. Griffith Trophy: Laurie Laidlaw w th 40 off 18.

It is most satisfying to see such a promising new member being urged to improve his golf by reducing his handicap to 13!!!

Lizards.

1st Lucky 13	40 off 18
2nd Geoff Wotton	37 off 22
3rd Geoff Quinlan	36 off 24.

You will have noticed that Geoff Wotton has been nudging the top for a few times. It is understood that he has been posted to Canberra, in order to give him the necessary time to practise golf, Watch out Lizards when he gets back.

Geoff Quinlan with two opponents effectively removed, will only face the opposition of the up & coming players in future games.

Visitors.

1st Father Whelan	46 off 20
2nd Father Cameron	40 off 24
3rd Warwick McMeachan	39 off 38

Not many people may have noticed this, but on watching closely I saw that at each tee the two Fathers both took out a small portable altar. To complete the ceremony each had a sip of sacramental Wine, at least I think it was that, anyway it came out of a square bottle.

What chance would young Warren have, particularly if he's Presbyterian.

Nearest the Pins.

1st R. Jerkin

17th Father Cameron. On this tee he also brought out his worry beads.

The Bradman Trophy.

It is with great reluctance that I announce that the winner was our Revered President - Les Garlick with 16 off 5.

It is also with great reluctance that I point out that it is a long, long time that anybody has won on such an appallingly low score.

He set up a fight to ward off old age,
Many battles to win did he wage,
Then creaky elbowed & senily decayed,
Game to the last, his Bradman he made.

Lizards - St. Augustines Trophy.

St. Augustines	624 Points
Lizards	544 points.

Thus by the narrowest of margins the trophy has been won for the first & last time by the orgies.

Points of Interest (1) Bill Townsend was so enraged when he hit his ball into the rough that he deliberately wrapped his club around a tree & broke it.

(2) George Russell also fluffed. The Ball went about ten yards, he threw the club further than the ball, & at the same time uttered loud & clear.

One of the fathers, three fairways away, heard the commotion & asked one of his loity what it was.

He was told by Lance that it was George Russell who only had one ball & must have sliced it.

(3) Lance Try had the job of welcoming the Fathers from St. Orgies, It caused fireworks.

Hole in One Tin. Some Lizards & Visitors may not be aware that this tin is an insurance against getting a hole in one. As everyone knows, if by good luck a bloke gets a hole in one, he is expected to shout drinks for all present.

In the Lizards this means a 9 gallon keg costing $17.

If you haven't put your 10¢ in, you'll be expected to dig & dig deep. It is a worthwhile insurance.

ANNUAL MEETING & DINNER.

This very important & enjoyable event will be held on Thursday the 9th of July.

The meeting will start at 6.30pm sharp.

Because we want to sit down to the usual superb grub & grog at about 7.30, Lizards are begged to cut the gab at the meeting.

Visitors who have attended three monthly meetings are welcome.

The cost is a measly $3.00 a head.

Please, if possible, pay Matt today.
