

hey, there! Belay the barrels, grab the galleons and hold onto your halcyons! Porter's Pirates are among us on their winter roving circuit of the social golf clubs. It's our turn to repulse the boarders being led no less than by our own Fearless and turned traitor for the day.

For those poor demented souls mystified by this garbage, and who haven't read their fixture cards--today we do battle with the Manly 16ft. Skiff Club's pick (?) golfers. Welcome aboard, men, on this wonderful balmy day at Doyle Avalon. The inter-Club competition will be a 20 per side job. NEAREST THE PINS TODAY ARE THE 1ST & 17TH. There are prizes for the best first nine and best second nine, open to both Lizards and Visitors.

COURSE MAINTENANCE

The Greenkeeper has promised that the difficulties on the 4th and 5th greens last month will be encountered today on every green. He has done this in response to popular demand and in a genuine effort to improve putting concentration. Thanks a lot.

HOLE-IN-ONE INSURANCE: A new system starts today. When paying the day's fees the insurance fee will be located nearby. As a 10cent coin is inserted a rubber stamp will verify this fact on the player's score card. Play safe, pay up and don't suffer the hole-in-one jitters that invariably follows when you don't take out this invaluable insurance. $20 could be the penalty. And you'd better believe it--there's no chance of not buying a keg if you are one unprotected.

PERSONAL PARS

WACE (Lifer) TRY has blotted his copybook! Let it be known that at last Monday's committee meeting our venerable Plant Engineer was the Only One who knocked back a glass of amber nectar. Ripley has a word for that kind of shattering experience.

BILL SMITH may not attend Lizards again after the disgraceful exhibition on his attaining "full" membership last month. It is understood he took it all very much to heart and sulked for three weeks, wouldn't eat his play-lunch and wouldn't say "Lizards" for beers. That's what happens when you've got no sense of humour. Welcome back JIM(MAO) HOWE! After an incredible series of adventures this modern-day Marco Polo disguised as an oriental Maxwell Smart thwarted the Red Guard and wangled a visa to Australia where he has been accorded political asylum after relinquishing his role as manager of the visiting table tennis team. For further thrilling details set aside an hour or two and see Jim.

LADIES NIGHT: This wonderful night is coming around again so don't forget to tell the little lady in plenty of time so she can buy a new outfit. DATE: OCTOBER 21st, a Saturday night. PLACE: MANLY CIVIC CLUB (of course). $5 per head barbie. Book with Bill Epps as soon as possible for a night of wine, women and other fine entertainment.

WINNING TWO PRIZES: Just to clear up a question on whether a member can win two prizes on the one day---yes, he can.

On a special day a donor presents his prize at his own discretion, whether it be for the Bradman, best stableford, best off the stick or whatever. Under the Lizards Constitution the Club's prizes must go to those players with the best scores.

A GENTLE REMINDER: FEES FOR 1972-73 ARE NOW DUE
