PERSONAL PARS.

BRYAN OSBORNE, if you haven't noticed, was on top of the winning list in October with Geoff. Quinlan in the 4BBB and also in November with Lance Try in the Canadian Poursomes. He reckons he's a moral for taking out this month's event. His lucky star is in the right position and you'd better believe it... he took delivery of a new Marina coupe last Thursday after his wife sent in a couple of corn flake packet tops and had one of them picked out of the barrel. Just ~~make sure you've got your money in the insurance~~ tin, BRYAN, you never know what could happen when your luck's in.

LANEE TRY is busy gathering information, anecdotes, photographs and other historical items relating to the earlier days of the Lizards Golf Club. Anyone with anything to contribute will help a lot towards the hoped-for writing-up of the Club's formation, early days and progress since. A meeting of as many as possible of the original and pioneer members will be held on February 5th next.

PAUL (The Dip) HENNESSY boasts that he's never bought a golf ball or tee in his life. Remember, Paul, you said it, not us. Just remember fellas, keep your ball-pocket zips up.. the crows are bad about this time of the year.

ERIC MACMEECHAN has several Lizards ashtrays.. how he possibly got them we don't know.. but that's not the point; it's where he keeps them that tends to make a true Lizard gag.. on the cistern in the family loo. He's not called MacSeptic for nothing, I suppose.

You'll notice our Preso, GORDON DONALD, sneaking off early today.. going where? To work of course. As one of Santa's most ardent helpers he's so dedicated to seeing that the mountain of Xmas mail gets through that he can't stand by and see his fellow helpers slaving on without him... and on triple compensation for their Sunday sacrifices.
