"FLAT OUT LIKE" ---

Best wishes to all for 1975, your Editor has made a Resolution not to malign anyone in the New Years editions. Except of course the Committee, Members, and one or two of the visitors.

Today's event is the Secretary Treasurers day on the fixture sheet, Sir Gordons day to you, and will no doubt be won by one of his fully paid up mates and certainly not by any member in arrears.

The December Meeting was attended by 26 Lizards and 15 Visitors with Santa Lance doing his "Ho Ho Bloody Ho" bit. (He is now a member of Actors Equity having been forced into it by Peter Allen).

Eric McMeechan welcomed the Visitors and Ken Minehan responded on their behalf.

The Welcome Speech was delivered in a mixture of fluent Pakistani with a touch of the Afganistan dialect and caused considerable anguish to Ken who was supposed to know what the Scottish twit was talking about.

Consequently the reply was delivered in colourful Aussie invective which resulted in Ken having to hit the swear can quite regularly.

PERSONAL PARS

1. The longstanding feud between the Captain and the Cook is now over. I understand that during a top level meeting on neutral ground (possibly the Garden Club) an agreement was reached, terms of settlement are thought to be one Stroke, one Snag.
2. Where do you think that old Sea Dog David Treharne spent a recent day off? On a ferry trip outing drinking warm beer, Godfrey now ignores him completely.
3. Your fairminded Editor offers his congratulations to the Down Underproof Aussie Cricket Team on their fortunate ashes victory over the Unlucky, Fine, English, Sporting, Group of Cricketing Gentlemen known as the M.C.C.
