JULY 1978

Ah! Welcome Aboard Mates. Step up and meet Captain Treharne and his half trained parrot. Thrill to this sailor's hornpipe. See Allen the Crocodile and his amazing clock. Dance with Smee the pirate fairy. Drool over this amazing drivell or vice versa. And so on.....

Today is McMeechan/Jenkin Trophy Day. It is also Lizards Vs Sailo's Competition for the Annual Trophy. Treharne should be almost as schizophrenic as Capt. Hook by the end of the day. Nearest the pins are on 1st, 10th, 17th, and 2nd shot on the 2nd.

Good Golf and Good Luck gentlemen.

On the 18th June there was a meeting of a club known as "The Lizards" at Royal Avalon Golf Course. This was, and in some cases still is, news to a large proportion of the past (sic) committee of said club.

Those present who were unused to the activities of such groups as "Dr. Strange-love was my mother" or "Re-elect Nixon in 1984" or "The three stooges reborn in street theatre" were confused. Conversely, those skilled at controlling hermaphroditic elephants on heat were bored.

The following results were said to have occurred:

Attendance:	27 Members, 2 Country Members, 20 Visitors
Lizards:	1st Royle Jenkin 34 off 15 2nd Marty Plim 32 off 14
Visitors:	1st Bill Corrick 40 off 30 2nd Phil Saillard 37 off 24

The imposition of a fine on Spriggs of $1 per position is hereby moved.

The meeting was superbly run and controlled by Spriggs, Stirrer, Wotton, Snowy Mountains, Rolled Oats, Santa and so on. It is understood that all future meetings of the Civic Club will be disorganised along similar lines providing Spriggs accepts the consultants fee on offer.

Reports of what actually happened vary considerably - a number of witnesses being, as yet, unable to speak.

However, the ever-popular, all seeing all hearing reporter, your enemy and mine, Mr. I.N. Depth was in action. It is a pity his handwriting becomes illegible as he becomes tired (and pissed- ED). Herewith the report.

The 32nd meeting was opened by Sprigs and promptly shut on a motion of the members.

Sprigs apologised for the absense of the Lizard, substituted a skink and reopened the meeting. To-Lose-Le Track would have been impressed.

The meeting was then closed and opened several times, like a venetian blind in a brothel.

Visitors, including the President and Secretary/Manager of the Civic Club and Geoff Adams, representing Mr. Lindenberg, were welcomed.

The crocodile rose to deliver his report. It fell on deaf ears, thirsty tongues and noses delicately pinched between two fingers to repel the smell. (Note repel/smell - touch of class - ED).

Croc named new full members in 1977/78 as Biggles, Hardman, Hoffman, O'Keefe, Lean on Them, Atkins, Call me Ralph, Phil Saillard and Ray Hilton. New country members are McMeechan, Osborne, Black, Tardiff, Thomson, Ross, Ingrham, Gaze, Gilchrist and Tipper. He forgot the name of the President.

Gordon then delivered the Treasurer's report because he is the treasurer. (No doubt about Sprigs - he runs a tight meeting.) Club is solvent. In 1977/78 a total of 520 people came to Lizards, with an average of 29 Lizards per month. A good year, with the raffle helping solvency and rising costs creating problems. And so on.

Sprigs then announced General Bussiness. Why, nobody quite knows.

Halliwell/Wotton immediately established a decomposing court of jurisimprudence. Over much debate over the size of sentence the following Lizards were found innocent and fined:

Lewis (for kegs)	$4
Campbell (for no spoons)	$2
Crocodile (for various)	$4
Sprigs (no playing)	$10
Malm (no playing)	$2
McMeechan(not playing with his son?)	$2

Smee then got the playing fee up $1. Reasons, rising costs.

Wotton then donated a bat/oar for Lizard v MCCCCC competition.

Much appreciated by Sprigs who thought he was the winner.

Lance Try then mentioned the possiblility of Lizards joining the Dee Why R.S.L. in a golf weekend away in October. More to be heard of this later.

Sprigs then launched into a eulogy on the executive, Lizards, the weather, his wife, mother-in-law and so on.

Once the members has returned from the bar, Sprigs closed the meeting which he had failed to open.

Instantly vigorous discussion on a variety of serious matters commenced.

Your reporter repaired to the bar and began discussing schooners (ingratiating swine - ED.) with Captain Hook.

Next month it's Captain Hook in profile-- or front on if I can get some wide paper. And so on.
