Gentlemen, Good Morning and Welcome to the Captain-Handicapper and his Assistant's Day. The day in the Lizards Calendar in which men are polite and low handicappers are crawlers.

The following information may help you select your role:

Handicap Variations

- Up 2 Le Mon, Malm.
- Up 1 Bird, Biggles, Epps, F.Goozee, Hardman, Smee.
- Down 1 Allen, Call me Ralph, Treharne.
- Down 2 Lewis, Sheehan, Smith.
- Down 3 Tardiff, Wotton.

Please note that Lewis gives Snowy Mountains a stroke (nice to have big friends) and for good measure has the same number of Members gaining strokes as those losing strokes. A touch of the Joe Stalins? or perhaps the old MACHIAVELLI? Is Big Mach the man with the 3/4 pounder with us?

The Competition

Nearest the pins will be on the 1st, 13th, 17th, and second shot on the 5th.

Howard Lindenberg Trophy

The first round of this knockout competition was played in September. The following players were victorious and have progressed to the second round in which:

Smith	v	Lewis
Donald	v	O'Keefe

An excellent days golf in which 26 Lizards were joined by 11 Visitors. The result of the day will doubtless be emblazoned on everyone's memory.....Which is just as well because I can't find the damn things. Request a drop without penalty and permission to publish next month.

However, I can report the financial results.

*The President is skating on very thin ice. At the previous months meeting he forgot to Welcome the Visitors, and at this months Committee Meeting failed to bring along the Lizard. This man is worth watching; with a bit of luck you may be able to score a free beer.

*Slow play has become a feature of the second round at Avalon. (Very useful if you are trying to sober up). Indeed your beloved Editor was accused of tardiness in somewhat brutal terms only last month.....To suggest I could dig an Olympic Pool in three hours with a five iron and practice ball is a touch unkind. The reason for my measured pace is the need to console myself by reciting the following passage from Othello with great frequency:

To mourn a mischief that is past and gone,
Is the next way to draw new mischief on.

*Members may care to resort to the following gem from "As You Like It" (sex comedy) if being pressed by faster players:

"Sweep on, you fat and greasy citizen!"
