

Welcome Lizards and Lizartors to a breezy spring morning left over from last winter.

DONORS: Printers' Day is upon us again with Roy Malm and Bill Townsend setting the type of trophy we should have. It could be a bale of still wet five dollar bills! On second thoughts have you ever been rendered a mere five dollar bill from your friendly local printer.

AERIES -- or those persons swinging in high places -- not only missed the ball but did not get anywhere near the tune. They were led into the musical abyss by Biggles.

BIGGLES, having emerged from his cocoon, was sporting blue check trousers, sparkling blue tee shirt, snazzy shoes all topped by a red and white cap with the usual name tag fore and aft. He was voted the best dressed golfer on the day.

LEN LEMON, Croupier, writes the script, directs and produces the raffle. Last month he decided to spin the barrel with the "gate" open and caused a snow storm of undrawn tickets. After some delay every paper object around the shed, including several used plates and two copies of "Flatout Like" were jammed back into the official cylinder and the winning number was plucked out by visitor Terry Farrell --F96. "Yes please" sez Dave Gilchrist striding toward the pay window holding F96 aloft. "Not that green one" sez the boxer handing the half thawed mutton bird to Don Goozee, the holder of pink F96. Mr. Farrell, not wanting to be a party to any further schmozzle, promptly drew his own number as second prize winner. There being no other prizes the raffle was abandoned.

FREE DOWNERS went to birthday boy John Atkins and new bridegroom David Gilchrist.

CAPTAIN HANDICAPPER Alan Lewis, having impressed upon his new bride the necessity to attend Lizard Golf Days, missed out on last months' game while off on a family outing.

NEAREST THE PIN HOLES today are 1st, 8th, 13th and second shot on 18th.

Harry Thurston	V	Peter Allen
