

FLAT-OUT LIKE

November 1981

WELCOME to Hennesseys' Day, Lizardowlers' Day and standby for a visit from the Manly Rugby Union Golf Club. The Pauls Hennessy, both of them, will be our special donors. Paul junior returned from his emission work in Hong Kong a month ago and is still showing the symptoms of his evangelising. The Hennessy father and son team is unique to the Lizards Golf Club - other clubs are still thanking us.

GINGER RAYWOOD, non-playing Captain of the Rah-Rahs, will be accompanied by Les Fox and Eddie Jones, his non-playing caddies, and about 25 fair dinkum golfers. This will be the second Annual Tournament. Both Clubs are dibbing in for a perpetual trophy which could be suitable for use on the bar of the winning team. Last year Lizards won the day with 771 points to 716. Pull your sox up Union Club, square the result and have first use of the jug before the Lizards dent it.

CAPTAIN/HANDICAPPERS DAY produced the following results :-

LIZARDS	1st	Phil Sailard	43 points off 18
	2nd	Len Le Mon	40 points off 14
VISITORS	1st	Chris Wright	30 points off 27
		Stuart Duncan	14 points off 27
DONORS	1st nine	Phil Sailard	23 points
TROPHIES	2nd nine	Len Le Mon	22 points
NEAREST	4th	Phil Sailard
THE PIN	9th	Nev Meredith
	10th	Alan Lewis
Second on	11th	Alan Lewis
BRADMAN		Stuart Duncan

LAST MONTH all the visitors won a prize and Stuart Duncan scored two - an historic occasion.

IT NEVER RAINS on Lizards Day, apart from the October game. Eight players of 27 finished the 18 holes. Alan Lewis was fined for not retrieving one of the nearest the pin markers whereupon our strongest swimmer was sent to do the job. We have no further record of the marker or the swimmer.

LEN LE MON is languishing in Manly Hospital and upon enquiry of one of his various nefarious as to the reason for his untimely sojourn Fish Fingers advised us that he was "in for a gut scan".

RICK BATESON was entrusted with the carriage of 18 priceless Lizard glasses so he chucked them into the boot of his car, with several mirrors, a wheel brace and jack, and left it parked in Botany Road. His vehicle was duly slammed up the number plate by a fast moving car which came to rest nuzzling the wires originally attached to the back of his dash-board clock. When the dust settled, the only things worth keeping were one of Rick's front tyres and the 18 glasses. The unbreakable trophies will be on issue today - if George Bird doesn't drop one of them.

GEORGE BIRD has returned from Adelaide, by cab presumably, having competed in the Australian Hungries' Annual Golf Tournament, which is decided over 5 rounds. We think that George finished in the top ten. If you have some time to spare you could ask him for further details.

CATERER Ian Hampson dropped the snags and cucumbers out here at first light and has fled to Bayview to play in a knock-out competition for Willoughby Pub. It sounds as though he is trying to cut out his bar bill.

LADIES NIGHT, Manly Civic Club, Friday, 27th November. Final arrangements will be advised at today's meeting.

THE CHRISTMAS STOCKING is taking shape again. Bring whatever you can carry next month to top it up. See Paul Hennessy for a book/s of raffle tickets.

THE LINDENBERG TROPHY qualifying round is on today. The 16 best scorers will play off during the summer months.

NEAREST THE PIN HOLES are 1st, 8th, 13th and second shot on the 12th.

Glad golfing
