

April 1982

WELCOME to SHEEHAN-JENKIN DAY. Both of these steamed Lizards have been President and Bill is one of the too active Life Members. He was dubbed L.M., years ago to give him a well earned rest and get him out of everyone's hair around the shed. It didn't work, he now holds about three positions on the Committee and will most probably outlast Brylcream.

LAST YEAR this tournament attracted nine visitors - two of whom have become members. Doug Duncan and Noel Corley. Noel should be back today from his trip to hospital where he spent his hole time face down and Doug has returned from playing 17 holes at Thredbo, the most uppish course in Australia. He omitted the first because of the incidence of green fees.

THE SECRETARY-TREASURER'S DAY produced the following results :-

LIZARDS	1st	Roger Ehret	43 off 19
	2nd	Jack Gaudron	42 off 31
VISITORS	1st	Ken Bond	47 off 12
	2nd	Richard Dutton	38 off 20
NEAREST THE PIN	1st	Ken Bond
	8th	Garry Harrington
	13th	Denis Cooper
	Second shot 15th	Doug Duncan
DONORS TROPHY		Gordon Donald	24 on secret 9
BRADMAN		Eric Satchell	9 off 36

LIZARDS vs Manly-Warringah Leagues Cricket Club

Lizards	508 points
M.W.L.C.C.	452 points

Two 16 man teams competed in this competition - the best scores on each side were :-

M.W.L.C.C.		Lizards
Ken Bond	47	Roger Ehret	43
Denis Moore	39	Jack Gaudron	42
Rick Dutton	38	Marty Plim	38
Rick Waldock	35	Alan Lewis	36
Eric Tazellar	33	Gordon Donald	36

We hope to see more of Dead Legs and his merry band of gentlemanly cricketers in the near future.

THE LINDENBERG TROPHY knock-out is drawing to a conclusion. This month Alan Lewis plays Noel Corley, the winner to play Bill Epps and the two lifers Bill Sheehan and Gordon Donald battle it out, the winner to play Geoff Wotton. June will see only two contenders for the flight across the Atlantic.

FINES were rife last month, some of the more unusual were :-

Len Le Mon for bringing Ken Bond.
George Bird for incorrect handicapping of Ken Bond, and scoring only 9 points himself on the first 9.
Iam Hampson for inviting his father to attend.
Mark McMillan for throwing his ball off the green, twice.
Jack Bateson for speaking pommy language.
Roger Ehret for not backing himself on the tote.
Bill Epps for going on holidays without permission and posting the editorial back to the Club "Priority Paid", and Alan Lewis for forgetting the LP gas bottle and having his wife bring it out to the course.

GORDON DONALD had an enjoyable day; he was celebrating his 60th birthday, 20 years in the Lizards and won a prize for the secret 9.

JACK GAUDRON got an M.I.D. at last Monday's meeting for hopping into the cookhouse in the absence of Phil Saillard. Commendable enough, but Jack doesn't stand around like a slack bucket at the best of times.

THE AGM is not all that far away so we had better start greasing the skids and sidetracking our mates into jobs on the Committee before the President wakes up and puts the acid on more suitable yet slightly reticent folk.

NEAREST THE PIN HOLES are 1st, 8th, 13th and second shot on the 2nd.

Good Golfing
