

LIZARDS FLAT OUT LIKE

May 1982

WELCOME to Lizards' Presidents Day. Alan Lewis, that fresh faced hardworking recent parent who sits in the chair with the high back at the Lizard 'board-room' meetings with a bunch of wheesing boffins has introduced more fresh air into the inviroment than a broken window on the Manly ferry. Our congratulations go out to him. His sentence ends in June - our best wishes are extended to the next man.

SHEEHAN/JENKIN DAY last month produced the following results :-

Gordon Donald def. Bill Sheehan
Alan Lewis def. Noel Corley

FINES - of a different nature were :-

Club Captain George Bird for having a feather in his cap;

Caterer Ian Hampson for selling his business, leaving the Club and moving away from Sydney; and

Editor and member extraordinary Bill Epps and Doug Duncan for possession and use of alcohol around the course for purposes not other than drinking.

PAUL H. Jnr., welcomed the visitors by confirming what they already knew - that they should come again. 'Young' Paul, since then, suffered an accidental knee in the kidney whilst playing Premier League for Manly Vale against Pittwater whereupon he was transported to Mona Vale Hospital in his temporary mental absence. After filling their bottles in multi-colours for the best part of a week he was sprung last Tuesday and should be a rather stilted competitor today.

VICE PRESIDENT Harry Thurston looked like being run off the course and having his voting rights revoked when all and others realised that he did not have the new issue of Lizard badges in his possession for issue to the last half dozen new members. British justice has pervaded for, without a word of self defence, it has been established that the badges were not ready to be picked up and Harry, in his unerring way, has caused reproductions of the Lizard emblem which are far superior to the original.

THE RAFFLE was won by Nifty Nev Meredith. He drew the winning ticket with his own fish fingers.

CHRIS WRIGHT won the monthly putting. The annual finals will be conducted next month by Len LeMon who hopes to see 36 starters. Len has selected 1st, 2nd and 3rd over each of the past 12 months and has donated a lady's and gent's wrist watch as prizes on the day. A list of the contenders is on display in the shed.

LINDENBERG SEMI-FINALISTS will play off this Sunday :-

Bill Epps	vs	Alan Lewis	and
Geoff Wotton	vs	Gordon Donald

IAM HAMPSON our genial Caterer cum cordon bleu will be sadly missed - mainly because of the loss of his provedoring skills however there may be some who will miss his impish pommy face. Ian is setting up a business on the shores of Lake Illawarra close to the clubs, pubs and T.A.B. Good luck to the lad.

NEAREST THE PIN HOLES are 4th, 9th, 10th and second shot on 14th.

Good golfing
