FLAT OUT LIKE

WELCOME to Lizards and a special greeting to Len Le-Mon and Phil Saillard, our donors for the day. The indefatigable duo can be seen doing their thing around the hut every third Sunday, between them they will either burn or raffle anything for the welfare of the members. Keep up the good work and thanks again for the trophy.

REX GIBSON	- making love to David Gilchrist's wood covers, twice;
PAUL HENNESSY	- chatting up Vicki Jellis at the 9th and permitting his partners to take beer onto the course;

FINES (Continued)

ALMO and the SAINT - taking beer onto the course, and TONY ANDERSON - having an up and under on the fairway, TWICE.

WALLY BALLARD should be proud of the golfing spirit of his Sailors and will, no doubt, be back for another crack at the trophy in '83.

BON VOYAGE Doug Duncan - He is off to Adelaide on his way to the Old Dart.

WELCOME BACK to John Bateson. He marched out of the Royal Prince Alfred last Tuesday having been fitted with a brand new 81 years.
