

LIZARDS

FLAT OUT LIKE

APRIL, 1985

WELCOME to SHEEHAN/JENKIN Day. Bill Sheehan is the Life Member who brings the beer out on golf days and hides the 3 stubbies of Old in the bottom of the ice box. He's the one that strips the shed during the meeting. Just as well the President doesn't speak from a rostrum - otherwise he could end up in the men's dunny, in the middle of a speech, with the rest of the gear. Royle Jenkin is a past Captain/Handicapper and President who still keeps in touch.

ST. PATRICK'S and SECRETARY/TREASURER'S Day produced the following results;

LIZARDS	1st	Paul R. Hennessy	40 off 20
	2nd	Catch	39 off 21
VISITORS	1st	Ken Bond	34 off 10
	2nd	Ken Bond	on a walk over
PAUL HENNESSY'S SEC/TREAS TROPHY		Len Le Mon	Secret nine
NEAREST THE PIN	4th	Andy Warner
	10th	Ken Bond
	17th	Harry Warner
Second shot on	2nd	A. Skinner
PUTTING		Catch	28 putts
AIRIES	- Michael O'Kane, Noel Corley, Catch and Andy Warner on a count back.
RAFFLE	Jack Gaudron	No. 55.

CATCH 22 came in with 40 points in February sharing the highest score with Jack Gaudron. Playing off 21 last month he notched up 39 points and took second prize. Rumour has it that the Handicapper is going to give him the one stroke back and confiscate his clubs.

KEN BOND declined the President's offer to respond on behalf of the visitor.

LEN LE MON scored the Hennessy Trophy, a bottle of Irish Cream, on a count back from Harry Thurston.

HARRY THURSTON discovered, while refurbishing the Club Championship Cup, that it was first presented as the President's Trophy at Woodland Golf Club in 1926. Woodland G.C. is thought to be in America.

TONY PERRIMAN slogged his tee shot to within a foot of the pin on the hazardous 9th and did not miss the putt. His marker wrote 2 hits 5 points on his card.

THE ATTENDANCE last month, 17 members, 2 L.M's and one visitor, reduced the Club whippy by $90. We need 30 players to break even - so bring a member or visitor in May. Chances are they will enjoy the experience.

FINES, some were;

Harry Warner	Aiming a ball at Jack Gaudron and missing,
Toby Webb	Leaving the cover off the beer tub,
Nifty	Wearing green on his hat to suggest he was a God fearing Irishman,
Len Le Mon	Carrying two Lizard 5 cents, making disparaging remarks about St. Patrick and calling the Sec/Treas. a Vaginus Hibernius, and
Andy Warner	Diagnosing that the President was conducting the meeting with distemper.

JOHN COPEMAN was on the Fines Tin. He looked busy but didn't pay any fines and collected the same amount.

LINDENBERG QUARTER FINAL will be played today:

Jack Gaudron	v	Michael O'Kane
Harry Warner	v	Len Le Mon
Gordon Donald	v	Andy Warner
Nev. Meredith	v	Catch

Rex Messup's prediction that George Bird, Noel Corley, Len Le Mon and Andy Warner would be in the Semi-finals could be half right; Len is still in there and Andy plays his first round in the tournament this morning.

NEAREST THE PIN HOLES are 1st, 9th, 17th and second shot on the 15th.

Good Golfing.....
