

MAY 1985

WELCOME to PRESIDENT'S DAY and the Semi-Finals of the Lindenberg Trophy. Len is approaching the end of his highly successful bash as Club President. He has smartened up our dress, put new life into the Ladies Night with a larger subsidy than usual, caused members to pay more attention to marking their cards, rubbed rough edges from several abrasive Club matters and in these days of economic stress, as a result of budgets and R.B.T., has more funds in the Lizards' purse, at this time of the year, than we have had in the past decade - and just to make his day, we all have our money on Jack Gaudron in today's match.

SHEEHAN-JENKIN DAY produced the following results;

LIZARDS	1st	Bill Epps	39 off 21
	2nd	Andy Warner	37 off 20
VISITORS	1st	Des Cahill	33 off 30
SHEEHAN-JENKIN TROPHY		Harry Thurston	- most 2's
Jack Gaudron Donation		Catch	best on 3rd
PUTTING		Bill Epps	25 putts
NEAREST THE PIN	1st	Len Le Mon
	4th	Des Cahill
	17th	Andre Le Croupier
	2nd on 15th	David Gilchrist
BRADMAN		Catch	24 off 20
AIRIES	Nev Meredith, Bill Epps, Jack Gaudron and Michael O'Kane.

APOLOGIES for non-attendance included Paul R. Hennessy and Noel Corley - playing the soccer match of the day at Cromer. Toby Webb - not feeling up to 18 holes on the day and Tony Perriman - suffering from periperi, a deficiency disease common after attending 1920's parties that extend into church hours.

PUBLIC PERIL caused the Lizards' competition to be played over 16 holes. The Council erected Cease Fire signs on the 9/18th tee following reports from a few survivors describing the deadly billiard table atmosphere of Barrenjoey Road, near Bilgola Head, where high velocity cue balls score in-offs, cannons and right-throughs, from first crack till just after Fore on golf days. Moving Barrenjoey Road could take weeks.

BILL EPPS spent most of his time at the meeting sitting on the back fence, sipping away at the 3 downers awarded for his golfing prowess. The free drinks had no effect on his sobriety - they were all Swan Light for which he has a religious abhorrence.

HARRY THURSTON, winner of the Sheehan-Jenkin Trophy, walked away with a better drink, a bottle of 19% Alc/Vol Chateau Yaldarra Port.

FINES were rife, some of them were:

Des Cahill	Laughing at a President's joke,
Jack Gaudron	offering to be the cook after cooked chickens had been delivered and paying only 60c for 3 cans removed from the tub at an inappropriate time,
Bill Epps	leaving his wallet on the T.V. and for oiling Marty Plim's squeaking buggy causing him mental anguish by having to play without the customary squeeling which he regarded as a following of bobby socked fans, and
Rick Bateson	running away from a dead black snake.

THE LINDENBERG SEMI-FINAL draw is:

Jack Gaudron	v	Len Le Mon
Nev Meredith	v	Andy Warner

Rocks Messup's long range prediction that Len and Andy would be in the semi's has paid off - Jack and Nifty have no qualms about coming up against the seeded players today. Jack Gaudron will be hitting off with one less stroke for having scored an aerie last month. Andy Warner is in the same boat. Bill Epps lost 2 for his winning streak.

PAUL HENNESSY'S youngest soccer player, Seán, broke his leg in two places whilst centre forwarding on the pitch last week-end. Soccer seems to be vying with rock fishing as the most dangerous sport in the world.

NEAREST THE PIN HOLES are 1st, 8th, 13th and second shot on the up hill 11th.

Good Golfing.....
