M.C.C. V's LIZARDS, the main event, was won by the Manly Civic Club. Our Congratulations to Richard Pearce and his bus load of bright and smiling players and supporters. A most enjoyable day tinged with the nostalgia of seeing Dave Treharne, Jock Ross and Brice Wormsley ruminating around the Shed. Richard accepted the fresh air replica of the missing silver trophy with pride and remarked that we should play more regularly.

PAUL HENNESSY Snr., ever present Secretary/Treasurer, took up his clubs after 16 months and romped in with 49 points. Asked at the presentation not how but why he did it replied that he did not consider golf as a challenge and merely had a round to test his theory. The Captain/Handicapper, displaying symptoms of substantial and lasting damage to his own psychological development, ripped a record 9 strokes from the honest competitor.

TOBY WEBB, still deplete from his 81st birthday celebration, succumbed to the heat and exertion of the 7th hole. Ray Walsham whizzed his red Ford onto the fairway and gave Toby a lift back to the Shed. Later in the day, after enjoying lunch and a beer, Toby was fined for lying down on the course.

NIFTY NEV, on duty with one of the fines tins, made more noise at the meeting than the disruptive element he was supposed to fine. He made up for it by downing the "Dave Treherne pint" awarded to non-drinker Michael O'Kane on his accession to the Bradman prize.

Jock Ross, complete with pipe, was asked to respond on behalf of some obscurity and gave forth with a 50 second burst of Scots burr, which seemed to solve the problem.

THE AIRIES were assembled and given final instructions as to the tune and "We are Airies, etc" by Choir Master Alan Lewis. On the third tap of the baton they all sounded off with a musical rendition of Jingle Bells - in keeping with the festive season.

THE CHRISTMAS HAMPER was drawn by Richard Pearce. The winner - IAIN VALENTINE. Iain, a visitor, was present and more than pleased with the result.

THE LADIES NIGHT RAFFLE, for want of a better name, opens today and will be drawn on the night. More info. at the meeting.

MARK MacMILLAN, Len Le Mon and Pat Purcell have all been given a mention for their recent exploits with the fairer sex - Mark for being seen with an exotic beauty; Len for escorting a lady to the Lizards meeting last Monday and Pat for appearing on TV with the good lookers in the Pizza ad. It must be the tropical weather that is affecting them.
