

LIZARDS

FLAT OUT LIKE

WELCOME to PAT PURCELL's Vice-Presidential Day. Pat, who has been enjoying more TV coverage recently than Done Lane, Jacky Gleeson, Sir Donald Bradman and Neville Wran rolled together, had no trouble taking the stage last month to conduct a lively Lizard's meeting in the unfortunate absence of President Harry. Resplendent in the famous purple, orange and black hooped Irish football cum steam navigation jersey, he took no longer than 10 minutes on each item - in true Pizza Hut tradition. Congratulations to Pat, his boss Harry and the other hard working committee members for their combined effort in keeping the Lizards on the ball over the past 12 months.

HIGHLIGHTS of the day, the last of the 1986/87 Fixture Card, include :

*Father and Son Day,
A possible challenge by the Baseballers,
Our last axle lickin' delicacy from Andy's de Wheels, and
The Lindenberg Final*

GOOD LUCK to the Fathers, Grandfathers, Sons, Step Sons, Gradsons, God Sons and Sons-in-Law taking part in the papa chase.

THE LINDENBERG semi-finalists were Peter Grimes vs. Harry Warner and Garry Bird vs the current holder Andy Warner. The finalists are Peter and Andy. The best of British to the contestants in their quest for the prestigious trophy. Betting, when this edition hit the ink, was at your own risk.

THE CURL CURL CLASSICS TOUCH FOOTBALL TEAM, in their inaugural golf clash with the Lizards, failed to conform to the script and WON by 271 points to 267. The team of 11 were gauged through leering Lizard lids, before hit-off, as morale boosters for the home side - then poof! - no sooner than the starters gun had punctured the Captain/Handicapper's golf bag, they were all over the course like top dressing scoring points as though they had nothing better to do. Congratulations fellers, we look forward to a re-match. Peter Grimes and Garry Bird deserve all the debit for inviting these athletic young men. Garry provided the perpetuating "shield" of which we caught a fleeting glimpse before it copped the Classic whisk.

BILL EPPS, winner of a bottle of Yalumba Director's Special, the Jack Gaudron prize, surmised some out of character brilliance had crept into his game, over a mystery part of the course, to deserve such a shock. On doing the inevitable Pandora he discovered all the cards had been shuffled and his was the one drawn from the pack. So much for keeping the head still and following through etc.

THE ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING will be held at the Manly Civic Club on Monday 7th July. Details of time etc, will be announced at the meeting today.

The CAPTAIN/HANDICAPPER in a fit of zealous generosity, made the following adjustments to members' handicaps :

Plus 1 - Garry Bird
- Dave Gilchrist
- Pat Purcell
- Toby Webb

Nearest the pins are the 1st, 8th and the second shot on the 11th and 15th holes.

LOTTERY TICKETS will be available in the shed after the game.

Good Golfing .
