

LIZARDS

FLAT OUT LIKE

JULY, 1988

WELCOME to EPPS/MEREDITH DAY and the drawing of the Lizards 43rd year. Hats off to the few who left their indelible mark on the first page of our history book, so long ago.

NIFTY, still recovering from his fall, will present the winner's trophy. His co-donor Bill Epps, in company with his wife Bette, is enjoying the warmer climate in Darwin. They are well on the way in their 9500 km trek through the centre and west of Australia.

CONGRATULATIONS to the new President and committee - whoever they are. Having departed on the Alice Springs/Darwin and all points west on 1st July, the writer could not attend the A.G.M. A member was bribed, in advance, to remain awake during such proceedings and append the relevant information to this issue of F.O.L.

VICE-PRESIDENT'S DAY, a fateful day for annual trophies, produced the following results:

First Lizards and Dave Gilchrist Trophy:

John O'Meara 42 Points off 36 Handicap

Second Lizards Pat Purcell 40 Points off 30 Handicap on a count back from Grizz-z

First Visitors Neil Shackle 41 Points off 16 Handicap

Longest Drives:

20 Handicap and under Andy Warner - Pow!
21 Handicap and over Geoff Warren

Nearest the Pins:

1st Dave Gilchrist

Second shot 15th Catch - Fluke!

Putting Peter Grimes 26 Putts = 10 one putt greens at Avalon - WOW!

Bradman Wal Hill 16 Points off 36 Handicap

Raffle Catch - on a count back from Neil Shackle who drew one off his own ticket.

AIRIES included the muddied President, Pat Purcell, who went into the mire, nose, buckle and toes down, on the 9th whilst uttering the warning "Watch yourselves coming down here, boys!"

BILL SHEEHAN qualified for a downer by amassing 4 airies, including one robust attempt to hit the ball on the putting green.

NIFTY, a non-combatant, was the best singer and had no trouble sousing his free drink.

FATHER AND SON event was won by the pair tipped in the June issue - Jim Small and Grizz-z. The winners' 76 Points was too hot for the Warner Bros, who had put together a healthy 67.

JIM, with the Father/Grizz thing furthest from his mind, was F.O.L., to have his name on the Lindenberg knock-out Trophy, notwithstanding the recent amputation of SIX strokes from his handicap. With the steady Len Le Mon breathing down your back, one is usually in a runner-up situation. Not on this occasion, Jim zoomed in with the regulation 36 Points to Len's 31. Len, an astute putter, had an unusual 35 putts, Jim was happy with his 33. Good on you, Jim!

FINES, quite a few of them were

Geoff Warren	Feeding a non-Lizard dog;
Dave Gilchrist	Forgetting Vice-Presidents' Trophy;
Alan Lewis	Forgetting the gas bottle and having his wife bring it to the course;
Dave Gilchrist	Causing Nev Meredith to leave to purchase a suitable trophy;
Alan Lewis	Causing his wife to bring the wrong gas bottle;
Andy Warner	Washing his muddy golf balls in with the hot dogs at the half way break;
Peter Grimes	Due to one of his dogs eating the best half of Len's sandwich;
Harry Thurston and Bill Sheehan	Getting their capabilities confused with their ambitions by challenging the Warner Bros., for a lottery ticket;
All Pommies	Getting beaten at soccer by Russia;
All Hiberians	Getting beaten at soccer by Holland;
Steve Tostevin	Having not been at Lizards before;
Darby Vanzye, Dan Whitehead and Wall Hall
Alan Lewis	Breaking an egg at half way when "any silly bastard could see they were not hard boiled";
Neil Shackle	After the caterers had been raked over the bed of nails a dozen times for their misnomers;
	Unfavourable utterances concerning the Lizard Chef/Caterers; and
Peter Grimes	An ungentlemanly reference to the amount of effluent contained in the Croupier's head;

WELL DONE to the winners of the Annual Trophies - keep a copy of this for the records and my edification when I get back.

Good golfing to-day.....Bill Epps, Editor
