WELCOME TO GARRY BIRD'S PRINTERS DAY.

What does a Lizard printer do? Transcribing the blurry gibberish, handed in by the Editor, to produce the F.O.L., in easy to see black and ink, is one of his more onerous tasks. He pulled the 88/89 Fixture card from his magic hat on the first day of the season - an all time record. The emblem on the new Club shirt is another bird dropping. The annual Touch Football trophy bears his trademark, along with the nomination forms we saw recently and others in use every golf day etc., Any spare time is taken up on a string and bead abacus in his role of Assistant Handicapper. It should be a pleasant change for him to have come out of the Caterer's frying pan into the firing line.

LE/MON DELLA DAY produced the following results:

First Lizards:	Jim Small.	41 Points off 25 ; Handicap on a countback.
Second Lizards:	Garry Bird.	41 Points off 24 Handicap
Scratch Score:	Tony Della.	27 Points on a countback from Len Le Mon.
First Visitors:	Neil Shackie.	42 Points off 14 Handicap.
Second Visitors:	Dave Pringle.	41 Points off 25 Handicap.

Best Back 9 Lizards: Mark Mac Millan. 20 Points off
13 Handicap.

2nd Shot 5th Under 20 Handicap: Neil Shackle

Bradman: Gary Murphy. 10 Points off 36 Handicap.

LEN and TONY provided a smorgasbord of prizes - an interesting but rather restrictive one was for the scratch Stableford score. The donors hit the tape with a winning 27 points each. A sterling effort, from both the players and handicappers point of view. Apply their handicaps to these scores and they would have had 37 and the par figure of 36 points, respectively. It must be difficult for them to know they have to lift their game by almost 50% to score an inflated but fashionable 40 points.

JIM SMALL, tipped in the morning edition to win the day, made it - on a countback from the Assistant Handicapper! Might have been more advantageous had he not stuck to the script and ad libbed on this occasion; no flies on Jim, the last time he won he was playing off 31. Jim is our most improved and genial player. It's still unknown whether Jim discovered golf or golf discovered Jim - who cares, obviously he doesn't. Seems the more he puts his ears back the better he goes. Having had one such ear filled with fruity advice as to his next stroke, the long hitting Andy, he had an aerie. The airswing caused the Grizz to indulge in unseemly merriment whilst the more dour Harry Warner gave the impression of giving birth to a hernia. It didn't worry the fellow under the doberman coloured Stetson - he still won and, when herded in with the Aeries Choir to sing their normal chant, caused them to burst forth with "Happy Birthday to You".

NEIL SHACKLE, who has worked on more Lizard glasses than Gibb and Beeman, accepted a new pair, plus another visitor's trophy, after a brief spell of about one month. Congratulations and thanks for putting Dave Pringle's light on. We are extremely fortunate in having a visitor of Neil's calibre - other Clubs must be vying for his services.

GARRY MURPHY, who coasted with 10 points to win the Bradman event, lives two doors from Paul Hennessy, his wife's mother married well known retired member Billy T., and he works with Mark MacMillan. When asked how he had avoided playing with the lizards for so long, it evolved that he had not played ANYWHERE before. It was a good answer to a dumb question and a great start to what we hope will be a long association with the game.

FINES, some of them were:

Neil Shackle Playing with an Englishman, Steve, an Irishman, John, and a Scotsman, Dave;

Grizz and Jim Small: Impersonating the Bobsie Twins in their cowboy hats;

Len Le Mon Grounding his club in a water hazard;

Harry Warner Wearing a parrot feather in one side of his hat, a sparrow feather in the other and playing like a turkey; and

Ne~~V~~ Meredith Leaving home without his clubs, in an attempt to deceive his wife, and promptly hiring a set on arrival at Avalon.
