

FLAT OUT LIKE

AUGUST, 1990.

WELCOME to LE MON/DELLA DAY. Len and Tony are two of the Clubs better golfers and play off handicaps well below the Lizards average of 18.5. Tony has been known to whip in his hard hitting doctor son, Stephen, to take out the Father and Son Trophy. Len, an ex. Captain Handicapper, was President in '84 and Champier ever since. Both will be meeting around the Pymble course on Tues., in one of those white dodgems - Good luck to them.

EPPS/MEREDITH DAY produced the following results:

|                          |                                           |                            |
|--------------------------|-------------------------------------------|----------------------------|
| Lizards 1 st  | Neil Shackle                              | 36 points off 12 Handicap. |
| Lizards 2 nd  | Dave Rayner                               | 36 points off 19 Handicap. |
| Visitors 1 st | Shaun Gilchrist                           | 22 points off 36 Handicap  |
| Nearest the Pins         | 2 nd Alan Lewis                |                            |
|                          | 4 th Greg Elks                 |                            |
|                          | 7 th Alan Lewis                |                            |
| Longest Drive            | 20+ Hcp. 5 th Garry Bird       |                            |
|                          | under 20 Hcp 2 nd Neil Shackle |                            |
| Best Front 9             | Peter Grimes                              | 19 points                  |
| Best Back 9              | Harry Warner                              | 18 points                  |
| Bradman                  | Alex Coroneos                             | 18 points off 36 Handicap  |
| Raffle                   | Jim Small and Shaun Gilchrist             |                            |

ACE GOLFER Neil Shackle's only claim to fame this year had been his success in the May and June raffles - a regular member of the Aries since January and Bradman in March, he was giving the impression of having lost his golfing marbles.

He reverted to normal last month and, by firing a faultless par round, managed to slip into the winning enclosure ahead of the Grizz - on a count back. Close, but good enough to shake hands with co-donor New Meredith and accept the bottle of Centreau.

THE GRIZZ, apart from his hole-in-one in January and Bradman effort in June, had not rated a mention in the '90's. Nice to see him back on the front page.

SHAUN GILCHRIST helped to clear the shelf by winning the Visitors' Trophy and the Raffle. He was fined, during the course of the meeting, for both verbal and physical abuse of his clubs. Tut-tut.

NIFTY, Prince of Aries, nearly blew a kidney sac when his club head whistled past his ball, on the first tee; in a full blooded demonstration of how to earn a free drink. The Aries were a select group - the only qualifiers being Dave Gilchrist, Alex Coroncos and himself.

ALEX C., was fined for not counting his air swings during the round that earned him the title of Bradman, and again for not enquiring whether he should include such occurrences in his score. We hope to see you again Alex - and agree with you that golf is to be enjoyed rather than accounted for.

CHEF-CATERER, Harry Warner, apart from having no knives or forks, provided a reasonable fare on his first gig following his election to the post. Harry is the second ex-President, in recent times, to take on the task of catering. Hats off to both Harrys.

ANDY WARNER, with inside drum as to the proposed tucker, had 2 pies scouted in his kick when he trundled up to the course.

A. SKINNER, of 29 Albert Street, Port Melbourne, VIC. 3207, with ticket 237141, won the QLD. RSL, Art Union No 78, drawn 1 Aug, 1990 - worth about $700,000. So! Now that we are aware of his address and coast code, do we send him all those prizes for nearest-the-pin he has been winning?

WAL HILL, the real Bradman - forget Alex, has been paying for more drinks than usual of late, HOWEVER, he will be re-issued with a Lizard ZAC as from the commencement of the meeting today. Wal wasn't as fortunate as Bill Epps when he lost his Lizard 5c., by spending it, hole and all, in the Paragon Hotel, before it was raised into a neat heap on Circular Quay. Bill went back the following night and got it back in his change! Such is life, Wal - look after this one. NZ Airlines are cracking down on flying out illegal currency.

Good Golfing . . . . .
Editor.

Handicap Adjustments

plus 1 Tony Della, Bill Epps
Michael Kent, Len le Mon

Nearest the Pins 1st, 2nd on 5th, 18th

Longest Drive 11th