

FLAT OUT LIKE

SEPTEMBER, 1990

WELCOME to HARRY and ANDY'S DAY. Last year there was a mention of them having more presidential material than the Gaiding Dept. in the Pentagon, so we went champ. into another belt of cloth. Chef/Caterer Harry will be orchestrating the lunch, hope he remembers to bring the Weber - otherwise it looks like Warner-schnitzels again. Today marks the last of the Warner Bros. 20th Century productions.

LE MON / DELLA Day produced the following results.

GEOFF WARREN, one of the 3 players with a full attendance record in 89/90, did not win any of the monthly events but managed to walk off with the Club Championship, Scratch Eclectic, as well as the Hic-Cup and Wooden Eye Trophies. He missed out on the Christmas Carroll Cup on a hunt back. Congratulations on your win - you can relax now, and plot along with the rest of us.

GREG ELKS, for his effort in taking the longest turf - a macro-divot capable of feeding several ruminants - was presented with his handiwork, protruding from 2 slices of bread, for his lunch.

THE GRIZZ is trying, unsuccessfully we hope, to confuse the handicappers with his temporary run of Bradman scores.

FINES: The proceeds, gathered up by Michael Kent and The Grizz, were donated to the Camperdown Telethon - some of them were:

Bill Sheehan and Geoff Balkan
Dave Gilchrist

Locking their keys
in their cars;
Travelling to N.Z. to watch
the All Blacks lose;
Wearing lady's golf shoes;
Presenting himself for golf in less than mint condition, and spilling 2 bottles of beer while climbing into his spiked footwear; Stating that he had never hit an airie in his life, and arriving at Avalon not knowing he was the Club's new Vice-President.

VICE-PRESIDENT John O'M., had been enjoying himself in the Northern Hemisphere for a couple of months and was lucky enough to play a couple of rounds with Dawson Carroll at the famous Killarney Golf and Fishing Club. A picturesque course bordering Lake Killarney, complete with mountains as a backdrop. The members have the choice of either rowing out in one of the colourful, clinker-built, skiffs, moored seductively close to the Club House, in quest of trout, or step onto the first tee and possibly take a chunk out of the emerald carpet with a niblick while striving for a par. Welcome back and congratulations on your vice-presidential appointment.

SICK LIST: Bill Sheehan admitted himself to hospital a few days ago "so they could have a look at his leg" — he will be home again tonight, and Len Lemon is having a spell from golf for a couple of weeks, as a result of a temporary short circuit affecting his sciatic nerve. We all wish them a speedy recovery.

Good Golfing
