

FLAT OUT LIKE

APRIL 1993

WELCOME TO NEIL SHACKLE DAY. Neil, being in the Transportation by Air business, has been a busy possum of late- we hope to see his smiling face, complete with donor's trophy, at Avalon today. He made it last month, scored 32 harmless points but managed to take out long drive, into the breeze, on the 7th. His last win was on his donor's day in April 1991, with 41 points off 10, then, to show it was no fluke, backed up next month and won with 39 off 9. He has not run a drum since, but rumour has it he's keen to re-cycle his own trophy again today.

GARRY BIRD DAY, with 22 members and 6 visitors, produced the following results;

LIZARDS 1st. Tony Della 44 Points off 13 Handicap

TONY DELLA, having not won a monthly event since Lotto started, broke the drought with a brilliant 44 pointer, plus two nearest the pins. His back nine included nine consecutive pars. Congratulations Tony!

ROBERT GILLIES and FRED WAGNER, not to be outdone by Tony and Dave Dunworth's swag of points, coasted into the visitors' winning enclosure with a cool 82 between them.

IAN SIMPSON, who supplements his earnings with visitors' second placings, dipped out on the day by 2 points.

WAL HILL, third highest qualifier for the Lindenberg, with 39 points, reverted to the Bradman donor.

NEV MEREDITH, back on deck after his mention on the sick list, was first to line up for the Airies. Others in the choir were Chris Mooney, Dave Gilchrist, Graham Byrce and Ireland's own Pat Purcell. In the absence of a strict conductor and being within an octave of 17th. March, Pat led them off into a short burst of "Hail Glorious St. Patrick".

PATRICK, himself, is not with us today. He either volunteered, was recalled or departed back to Dublin, for a period of 6 weeks. If all goes well, we won't see him again till June.

HARRY WARNER was fined for taking a cup of tea with one of his dog's 'No Fleas' pills instead of his sugarine tablet. Harry was awarded a credit fine, at the same time, for having no fleas.

THE LINDENBERG KNOCK-OUT COMPETITION was declared open and the 16 contenders released from the 1st. tee- with the following results;

Andy Warner def. Graham Bryce 2up.

Garry Bird def. Dave Gilchrist 4 and 3

Tony Della def. John O'Meara 5 and 4

Anthony Beale def. Wal Hill 6 and 4

Jim Small def. Geoff Warren by default

Dave Dunworth def. Dan Whitehead 2up.

Bill Epps def. Chris Mooney 1up.

The Grizz def. Harry McGuinness 1up.

THE TEA LADY has had 20¢ on each of the first four, on the above list, to make the semi finals - let's see how she goes.

THE DRAW for today's matches is;

A.Warner vs. D.Raynor

T.Della vs. D.Dunworth
