JULY 1993

WELCOME to ANTHONY BEALE - 48th PRESIDENT of the Lizards Golf Club! Forty Eight years ago, the founder, Leon List, with a small band of followers gave birth to this Club by firing a salvo of Spalding "Crow Flights" from the first tee at Palm Beach. In those days a Spalding "Crow Flight" cost one shilling and three pence and a round of golf would set you back five Shillings.

TODAY is EPPS/MEREDITH DAY. Spare a thought for Nifty, our multi-talented ex-secretary, who, among other things, opened the portals of Manly Fishing and Sporting Club for Lizard Committee meetings in November, 1986 - he is currently basking in "retirement" at Port Macquarie. Bill Epps, on the other hand, has just lobbed back from tropical Waikiki and is battling with the local climate.

MORE HISTORY: On this day, in 1965, the first edition of F.O.L. hit the press, Bill Sheehan was President, Lance Try, Plant Engineer and Gordon Donald became a new member. Gordon donated a coffee service, as an end of year trophy.

GEOFF WARRENS' VICE-PRESIDENTS DAY, with 24 Lizards and 8 visitors attending, produced the following results:

PRESIDENT Jim Small, as mentioned in the June F.O.L., would be vying for the V.P.'s trophy, The Lindenberg title as the Father and Son bash. The bookmakers would have had him at 5 to 1 in each event, and 50 to 1 to win all three! WELL, not to be outdone, Jim put his head down and won the V.P.'s trophy, beat the favoured Tony Della for the Lindenberg title and IF the Grizz (with his average of 34.3 points for his last 10 games) had turned up, he MAY have won the Father & Son event, by 6 shots - to complete the Grand Slam.

DAVE GILCHRIST had his first trip to the pay window since his successive wins in July and August last year.

JOHN MOONEY, with a neat 37 pointer, bagged the Visitor's trophy and had to wheel our new Captain, Chris Mooney, across the line to defeat title holders John and Anthony Beale, by 6 points, in the father and son event.

IAN SIMPSON filled second place - his third since last August.

THE LINDENBERG K.O. FINAL: Jim Small def. Tony Della 4 and 3.

The 47th AGM was conducted on 6th July at the Manly Fishing and Sporting Club. Lance Try, Life Member, twice President and long term Plant Engineer, graced the Meeting with his presence, imparted a brief burst of Lizard propaganda and presented the winners of the Club Championship and Lindenberg competition with their trophies. Thanks Lance
