MARCH 1994

WELCOME to GARRY BIRD DAY, the second round of the Lindenberg K.O. Competition and the advent of the Autumn golfing weather. Garry is an ex-Caterer, Assistant Handicapper, Captain/Handicapper (twice), President, Immediate Past President, and is currently Club Secretary, Printer and Publisher - a possible record for diversified Lizards employment. Keep up the good work! - we hope you remembered to bring the donors trophy.

GRAHAM BYRCE enjoyed a faultless round to take the Life Member's bottle of Ballentines, and placed himself in a formula one position on the grid for the Lindenberg K.O. Competition.

TONY DELLA flashed into second place, in a photo finish from donor Bill Epps.

ROBERT GILLIES, clear winner of the Visitors' Trophy, scooped up a couple of four pointers on his trip around the course - one on the sixth and the other when he birdied the uphill 16th.

JOHN WEST rejected 7 holes, by preferring not to score on them, and finished head and shoulders below any other contestant for the Bradman downer.

MANFRED was present, firing from the hip. Twelve points on the front nine and 21 on the back - including a four pointer he jagged on the 13th. Well sprayed Manfred.

HOLE-IN-ONE for Michael Harrison! Michael put his weight behind a lofted iron from the 4th tee to send his Optima into orbit well above the elevated green, mere 95 metres away. The ball hovered above the clouds directly over the pin, then plummeted down towards the target like a Bungee less bungee jumper. It bruised the hard green and spun back into the cup. Good shot Michael.

MICHAEL was dismembering the front nine with the same glee as a 10 year old, armed with a ball pane hammer, could explore the inner workings of a wind up alarm clock. By the ninth tee he was three shots under the card. He selected his trusty 8 iron, slammed his tee shot high with plenty of backspin. It came down, pin high, on the middle of Barrenjoey Road. This minor setback shattered his dream run, but was not enough to rob him of the handout for the best front nine.

OVERSEAS MEMBER, Dawson Carroll, had a hole-in-one on the 165m 8th at Mona Vale, a few days before the lizards match. Dawson's Australation tour has come to an end and he is winding his way back to Ireland by a couple of sunny countries - happy in the thought that he eventually one his own trophy.
