THE GRIZZ, winner of the Best Front Nine in March with 23 Points, limped in with an all up score of 24 - finishing his run in the Lindenberg Comp., but affording him a well earned Bradman downer.

Tony Della def Dave Raynor 7 and 6
Michael Harrison def Bill Epps 5 and 4
David Gilchrist def Jim Small 2 up

The only match to bring the spectators to their feet was the tussle between reigning champion Jim Small and Dave Gilchrist. Dave secured his place in the semis on the 17th green - with little to spare. Well done! to all the players.

THE LINDENBERG SEMI-FINAL draw:

Tony Della vs Michael Morgan
Michael Harrison vs Dave Gilchrist

Picking today's winners presents the same degree of uncertainty as predicting that gold Coast would beat Canberra. Lets just sit back and watch the action.

NEW COUNTRY MEMBER Geoff Warren, and family, were due to depart these shores a week ago, to take up residence in New Zealand. We wish them every success in their venture.

The AGM is to be conducted at the Manly Fishing and Sporting Association Club, 270-278 Pittwater Road, Manly, on Tuesday 5th July. Festivities commence 7.30pm at the bar in the first floor dining room. Mark the date on your calendar and stand by for further details, as they become available.

NEXT MONTH is VICE-PRESIDENT JOHN O'MEARA'S DAY, Father and Son Day, the Grand Final of the Lindenberg and the last fixture on the 93/94 card. Good Golfing....
