APRIL 1995

WELCOME to NEIL SHACKLE DAY Mk5, the Quarter-Final of the Lindenberg K.O. Competition and our opportunity to enjoy a round of golf in ideal mid-Autumn conditions.

THE RECORD shows that aspirants have had to be firing on both boilers to take out the Neil Shackle Trophy. The winners have been Neil Shackle 41 Points, Jim Small 40, Harry McGuinness 46, and Anthony Beale 44, on a countback from Peter Grimes. A double dose of Corn Flakes might help.

SMALL/RAYNER DAY, with 15 members and 2 visitors, produced the following results:

LIZARDS 2nd	The Grizz	38 Points off 18 Handicap
on a countback from Ian Simpson
VISITORS 1st	John Mooney	37 Points off 19 Handicap
VISITORS 2nd	Steve Smith	30 Points off 24 Handicap

GARRY BIRD celebrated his first monthly win in 18 games. Congratulations Garry.

IAN SIMPSON, still limping as a result of a 4 stroke handicap slash, had a digit in a smorgasbord of pies- beaten on a countback for second place by Donor Dave Rayner, he had the best front nine, the Longest Drive on the 7th and cleaned up the Nearest the Pin on the 9th.

JOHN MOONEY, last months Visitor's runner up, cracked it for the major prize with 37 Points, after a 2 stroke handicap chop. Well played John.

VISITOR STEVE SMITH took out the double - Visitors second and the Bradman stakes.

THE AIRIES CHOIR was an unusual solo-sung by Andy Warner, and not very musical.

THE LINDENBERG K.O. Competition saw the field reduced from 14 players to 8 - with only 3 matches being played!

Results were:

Michael Harrison	def.	Andy Warner	5 and 4
Jim Small	def.	Michael Morgan	lup
Chris Mooney	def.	Ken Bond	lup
Garry Bird	def.	Max Peet	by default
Dave Rayner	def.	Wal Hill	by default
Bill Epps	def.	Neil Shackle	by default
Anthony Beale	bye
Ian Simpson	bye

FINES, some of them were

President Chris Mooney...endeavouring to open the meeting with The Lizard locked in the boot
of his car;

Captain Michael Morgan...scheduling the longest drive to be played on the shortest hole on the course:

Gordon Donald and.....wearing name badges upsidedown
Michael Harrison

Ian Simpsonusing the sleeve of the Presidents shirt to open his beer; and

All members not wearing....for their disregard for Bill Sheehan green and his feelings so close to St.
Patricks Day.

It was noticed that some colour blind members paid up needlessly.

NEXT MONTH is President's Day and the Semi-finals of the Lindenberg competition.

Good Golfing
