

FLAT OUT LIKE

JUNE 1995

WELCOME to VICE-PRESIDENTS DAY, THE LINDENBERG GRAND FINAL and THE ANNUAL FATHER and SON competition. This will be our 588th monthly fixture and conclude the 49th year of Lizards' golfing activity.

GARRY BIRD, in his current role of Vice-President, Secretary, Printer and Publisher, has had more commendations in F.O.L. than Mother Theresa - so we will hold the accolades on this occasion; wish him well on his donors day and look forward to 1995 edition of the Lizards "Year Book", which he will release at the forthcoming A.G.M.

PRESIDENTS' DAY produced the following results:

THE LINDENBERG SEMI-FINAL draw for the day was:

Pres. Chris Mooney vs Michael Harrison
Grizz vs Jim Small

THE FIRST MATCH saw Michael battling to keep square with the President for the first 15 holes. Michael managed to win the 16th - the 17th and 18th were halved. A narrow win for Michael Harrison.

THE SECOND MATCH started well for Grizz with a par and birdie on the first two holes. Jim slowly closed the gap to even the match after 17 holes. Both players tee shots on the 18th were close to the green - Grizz chipped to within 4 feet of the pin, Jim was 12 feet short. Jim HOLED his 12 footer and Grizz's putt rimmed the cup, but failed to drop. Another hairline result.

JIM SMALL won the Stableford event for the President's trophy - his first win since June 94.

WAL HILL, the player who, in 1989, requested his 40 handicap be reduced to 36 "To make him play better" - and achieved 36 points off 36 handicap in Dec. 90 - cracked it for second place, his first monthly trophy ever! Congratulations Wal!

STEVE SMITH, visitors' runner up for the previous two months, improved his average score by 12 shots and broke the tape for his first win. He was presented with an imposing looking bottle of red wine labelled "Bulls Blood" red wine labelled "'Bulls Blood" product of Hungary, 12 per cent alc.. We hope he can make it back to the course today.

LIFE MEMBER LANCE TRY, a Lizard for the past 49 years, was in the news recently when, as President of North Manly-Brookvale RSL Sub-Branch, he was presented with the Meritorius Service Medal by the Governor for his 50 years of service to the RSL and the community, and again when the Ken Arthurson and Western stands at Brookvale Oval were opened. The western stand was named the Jean Try stand - in honour of Lance's mother. It was Mrs. Jean Try who donated Brookvale oval to the Council.

THE BELL we use at Avalon was another legacy from Jean Try. It once adorned the neck of her favourite cow 'Pansy', when she owned a farm on the site where the Brookvale Mall now stands.

THE 49th AGM will be conducted on Tuesday 4th July, in the refurbished club rooms of the Manly Fishing and Sporting Assn., Cnr., Pittwater and Balgowlah Roads, Manly, commencing at 7.00pm. It is shaping up to be a memorable occasion-see you there.

BACK TO GOLF - Todays Lindenberg Final starring Jim Small and Michael Harrison should be a ripper. Michael was runner up last year and Jim won the event in 1993. Good luck to both.

FATHER and SON combo., Jim Small and Dave Rayner will be flat-out-like to retain their title in todays match.

Good Golfing..... Bill Epps
