DECEMBER 1995

THE PRESIDENT and COMMITTEE of the Lizards Golf Club wish the Members, Visitors and all readers of the F.O.L., a VERY HAPPY AND HEALTHY CHRISTMAS.

WELCOME to CHRISTMAS CARROLL DAY - the day we play for the prestigious Dawson Carroll Cup. It is also Bring a Gift - Receive a Gift Day.

MEMBERS and VISITORS who have arrived giftless may overcome their problem by shopping at Vicki's Pro Shop. Wrapping paper and selotape are on hand in the shed.

A SPECIAL WELCOME to Dawson Carroll, our only Overseas Member, Donor for the day and winner of the 1993 event - which was played in Jan 1994. He finished one shot short of a playoff in 1991, prior to cracking it for the big one. Dawson donated the armful of silverware in 1988 - successive winners have been,

88 John O'Meara,
89 Mark McMillan,
90 John O'Meara,
91 Geoff Warren,
92 Michael Morgan,
93 Dawson Carroll and
94 Neil Shackle.
95 S. O'MEARA 56 Green Castle

Dawson left Ireland to the tender mercies of Bill Clinton, earlier this month, and has enjoyed a couple of warm up rounds at Mona Vale, in preparation for today's attempt to join John O'Meara as a dual title holder. Great to see you back after the two year break and Good Luck on the new layout at Avalon.

MICHAEL HARRISON, winner on the day, has had a remarkably successful run in the past 5 matches, with scores averaging less than 35 points! He won the July, Aug, Sep competition for the Diggers Trophy, the Nov Nifty Plate at Pt Macquarie and the Beale/Bond Day. Congratulations Michael.

JOHN MOONEY had been keeping a very low profile around the course, since he won in June 93 with 37 points - till 2 months ago when he exploded out of the woodwork with a 41 pointer. Promptly reduced two strokes, he was placed in the profiling cabinet, under "LOW", and the key incinerated. Unfortunately, for the Handicapper, John blew the sides out of the 4 draw can and lobbed back at the checkout with two points short of a porcupine! Well played John.

MANFRED made up for his dismal 9 pointer, at the hot dog stand, by taking the prize for the run home.

DONOR Anthony Beale had a feed of pickings with the best scratch and nearest the pin.

SID GOLDSMITH was so impressed with the new Bradman headpiece, he wanted to take it home.

FINES, some were:

Manfred	ringing Chris Mooney on the car phone to enquire "when do the Lizards hit off in daylight savings time?"
Sid Goldsmith	putting off on the 4th green - twice.
Michael Morgan	lining up a 10 foot putt on the 16th, for a four pointer, and five putting for a wipe!

NEXT MONTH is Captain - Handicapper's Day, with Captain Michael Harrison in the drivers seat.

Good Golfing Bill Epps
