MARCH 1996

WELCOME to SMALL/RAYNER DAY; the second round of the Lindenberg K.O. Competition and the 7th occasion Lizards Day has befallen on the "Day for the Wearing of the Green".

DONORS JIM and DAVE, between them, have had their names engraved on just about every piece of Lizard hardware, including the Father and Son event. Jim was President in 1992 and Dave - the Grizz - made headlines in F.O.L., when he scored his Hole-in-One. Travelling from Ourimbah each month, they are among the top 10 for attendance. Carry on the good work fellers.

MANFRED thundered through the tape for his first success since joining - coasting in 5 shots ahead of his nearest rival. He enjoyed several wins as a visitor, his best result being 40 off 36 in 1993. Congratulations Manfred.

STEVE SMITH has carved half a dozen strokes off his handicap since his first appearance on the Lizards scene and scored his second runners up prize as one of the newer members.

CAPTAIN-HANDICAPPER MICHAEL HARRISON finished 3rd on the day with a brilliant round of one over the card.

VISITOR MATTHEW CASTLE, after losing 8 strokes for his effort the previous month, managed a 40 pointer and won again - on a count-back!

CHARLIE CONIDELLIS had a good day - Visitors second, 2 nearest the pins and a prize in the raffle.

IN KEEPING with the days event, Life Member Garry Bird scored a nearest the pin and a free drink with the Airies, while Bill Epps picked up two nearest the pins and a raffle prize.

COUNTRY MEMBER GEOFF WARREN, out here for a flying visit, was pleased to have a round with the mob on the "home" course, before returning to New Zealand. Great to see you again Geoff.

FINES, some of them were:

Jim Small	refusing to wear his plus-fours to Lizards because he thought the members might laugh.
Chris Mooney	slamming his head in the car door while extricating his golf clubs and - bringing six visitors
Geoff Warren	addressing the Chief Dobber in a new acquired Kiwi accent and - becoming excited when a fluffy white dog walked past him.
Dawson Carroll	stating he did not play well because he drank a bottle of Dom Perigon on Mona Vale beach, with 3 women, the previous night and - planning to return to Ireland without permission from the Lizards committee.
Mick Harrison	referring to esteemed Life Members Donald and Sheehan as a pair of old duffers, with one set of good teeth between them.

THE LINDENBERG K.O. Competition second rounders will be briefed before being set loose on the first tee. Good luck to all involved!

THE 50th AGM will be held on Tuesday 9th July, in the Scores Bar of the Dee Why RSL - a salubrious setting - first door on the right as you enter the Club from the car park. Key the date in your PC or write it on your cuff. Leave some space for more info as it comes to hand.

NEXT MONTH is NEIL SHACKLE DAY and the LINDENBERG QUARTER FINALS. Do a "Chris Mooney" and invite half a dozen unwary visitors.

Good Golfing.....Bill Epps
