AUGUST 1996

WELCOME to LE MON/DELLA DAY, and a close encounter, of the second kind, with the Avalon RSL Golf Club.

TONY DELLA, arriving with an array of donors' trophies will still be expected to add 36 points to the Lizards total, in the match with the RSL. Len le Mon, Club Champ in 82 and 83, is enjoying a Sunday paper and a cuppa in the Nursing home - but would prefer to be part of the action on the course.

THE TWENTY or so Avalon RSL Golfers, led by President Chris Reid and Captain Graham Kibble and backed by such famous players as John Van Whats.his.name, Bob Tiffen, Geoff Cottam etc., will be armed with more local knowledge of the course than an Avalonian honey bee.

LAST YEAR the 10 best scores from each club added up to a win for the RSL by 6 points!

GRAHAM KIBBLE'S hole-in-one on the third plus John Van Rassas' and Geoff Cottam's combined effort of 77 points won the day. Congratulations fellers.

HIT OFF TODAY will be from 8.00am.

ANTHONY BEALE, runner up to Michael Harrison in the '95 Epps-Meredith stakes, reversed the order this year and walked off with a bottle of scotch.

MATTHEW CASTLE, who scooped the pool with 51 points off 38 in January, then backed up with 40 off 30 in February: has had his hand in the Visitor's bin for the last time. Following the prizegiving, President Michael Morgan, in one fell swoop, dubbed both Matthew and Glen Castle Lizard members. We wish Matthew and Glen a long and fruitful association with the Club.

In the absence of Neville Meredith, Bill Epps was the lone Airie on the day - and didn't sound too certain of the Airies song, before near choking on the unaccustomed low-alcohol beer.

FINES, some were:

Wal Hill: Scoring 30 points less than last month: and paying his fees with a $100 note.

Michael Harrison: being on the par 5 seventeenth for 2 and 4 putting.

Bill Sheehan: giving his son 5 two dollar lottery tickets, which won first prize and two one off consolation prizes and giving his son 2 tickets which did not win anything.

Chris Mooney: inviting a visitor who left early "in case I get fined".

NEXT MONTH : WARNER DAY will usher in the Spring Carnival,

Good Golfing.....Bill Epps
