Merry Christmas
and a prosperous new year to all!

DECEMBER 1996

WELCOME to CAPTAIN-HANDICAPPERS SPECIAL EVENT DAY, BRING A PRESENT RECEIVE A PRESENT, but delete the thought of playing for the Christmas Carroll Trophy, as our overseas member, Dawson Carroll, is cooling his heels at home (Lat. 54 North) and won't be stepping into the Sydney sunlight until later this month. We are looking forward to seeing Dawson - and the Cup - at the match in January.

BRING A GIFT: Should you be present without a present, you can make a purchase at Vicki's Pro Shop or sweet talk Bill Sheehan into collecting something for you, if he happens to be going into Avalon for supplies. Christmas wrapping and sticky tape are available in the Shed.

KEN BOND, the Club's most consistent player - averaging 36.4 points for his nine games in 95/96, won his FIRST monthly event since March 1992. His spotless round of 2 over the card was just enough to pip Glen Castle, at the post, by one stroke. Ken has been runner-up five times since his previous win - all with scores of 40 or more. Congratulations on earning your overdue downer - a drink he had to finish leaning on the new non-existent, back fence.

GLEN CASTLE made it to the pay window for the second time since becoming a Lizard in July.

GRAHAM MEYER bagged his first Visitors Trophy in Sept. with a neat 36 points off 18, but slipped into erdrive on Beale/Bond day to coast in with 8 shots to spare.

FINES, some were:

Jim Small, paying his green fees in coinage causing an undue stress to Posties money bag.

Capt./Handicapper, issuing John Haas a score card in the name of Jack Asss.

John Beale, boasting how he had appeared on a recent episode of the TV "Money Show", then not having enough cash for his raffle tickets.

Ken Bond, stating "I will be early at Lizards so I can do the handicap cards" and being the last to arrive.

Bill Sheehan, not having his car available and causing Bill Epps to bring the Lizards gear to Avalon in a box trailer.

Graham Meyer, using the Club's tomato sauce to embellish his application to join the Lizards, to give the impression it was bloodstained.

GRAHAM MEYER'S application for membership was duly processed by the President during the match de briefing. By the time the applicant was due to read his ketchup emrelished quest for Lizard status, the members had suffered enough of the ceremony and headed into the scrub, for a private picnic in the pillage. On their return, the nominal roll of past and present members had jumped from 227 to 228. Congratulations Graham - we hope you enjoy a long and fruitful association with the Lizards.

THE 1997 NEW LOOK Lizards shirts should be off the drawing board and on our backs in the near future - more info at todays meeting.

GREG ELK's mobile phone arrived at Avalon last month with Greg appended to the back of it. He won a nearest the pin, was put in charge of a fines tin, fined half a dozen times and put on the first available flight to Queensland - for us it was "good for one day, but better the next".
