DECEMBER 1997

THE PRESIDENT and Committee wish the Members, Visitors and all readers of F.O.L. a Very Happy and Healthy Christmas.

WELCOME to CHRISTMAS CARROLL DAY - the day we play for the prestigious Dawson Carroll Cup, which Dawson presented to the Club in 1998. It is also Bring a Gift - Receive a Gift Day.

MEMBERS and VISITORS who have arrived giftless may overcome their problem by shopping at Vicki's Pro. Shop. Wrapping Paper and Celotape are available in the Shed.

A SPECIAL WELCOME to Dawson Carroll, fresh from lat. 55N, our only Overseas Member, Donor for the day and winner of the event in 1993. Winners over the years have been John O'Meara(3) Mark MacMillan, Geoff Warren, Michael Morgan, Dawson Carroll, Neil Shackle and Glen Castle.

CATERER GRAHAME MEYER took his scone out of the oven long enough to concentrate on a round off golf, and blasted the field with a sizzling 45 pointer to score his first win since joining the Lizards in Nov. 96. Congratulations Grahame.

MICHAEL MORGAN'S game usually picks up with the advent of warmer weather and his 40 points ^a was good enough training run for today's D.C. Cup. When he makes the turn into the straight he could be in company with the two Castles, John O'Meara, Garry Bird and anyone who had a quiet Saturday night and a drop or two of rum on their cornflakes.

VISITORS John Bavin and Peter Kiely carded sedate 30 pointers to clear the trophy shelf.

WAL HILL, with the thought of being Bradman fast fading to a dim memory, picked up his second win for 'Best 9 Holes' within the past couple of months. Well played Wal.

PRESIDENT IAN SIMPSON and HARTMUT looked lonely in the Airies Choir loft.

STRETCH, armed with a Fines Tin during the meeting, generated more verbal pollution than the President.

FINES, some were:

Neil Shackle wearing his paddy-field head wear.

Dave Collins wearing his wife's golf sox with the pompoms cut off.

Bill Epps hitting the 5th green with his tee shot and 5 putting for a wipe

Manfred in an attempt to win the long drive, borrowing the Chief Dobbers high tech driver and belting the ball out of the confines of Avalon Golf Course.

Stretch a "credit fine" for bravery beyond the call, by wearing the tee shirt his mother gave him for his birthday.

GOOD LUCK to all contenders in today's "instant fame" event and all the best for your selection in the Gift heap.

NEXT MONTH is CAPTAIN HANDICAPPERS DAY - bring a visitor or two.

Good Golfing.....Bill Epps, Editor.
