FLAT OUT LIKE

FEBRUARY 1998

WELCOME to FOUNDATION/LIFE MEMBERS DAY - the day we salute LEON LIST, who led the founding Lizards to the tee, at Palm Beach, 619 months ago. Leon became the first Life Member, an honour subsequently bestowed on Col McClelland, Lance Try, Bill Sheehan, George Russell, Gordon Donald, Paul Hennessy, Bill Epps and Garry Bird - about the same number as there were founding members. Our appreciation is extended to Leon for his foresight - and to all Lizards for fostering the comradeship established half a century ago.

Donors today are LM's Bill Sheehan, Gordon Donald, Bill Epps and Garry Bird.

DAVE COLLINS, our lone (star) American member, made his debut in F.O.L. 12 months ago - for his 2nd visitors win with 37 off 15. He backed up with a win in April, 39 off 16, then picked up his second runners up prize with 33 off 10 in June. Since joining he has had a dry run, till he came out on top with his sizzling round of 5 over the card. Congratulations Dave.

GLEN CASTLE, never far from the action, slipped his hand into the bickie bin for the third time in 12 months, with a neat 41 pointer.

JOHN BAVIN and STUART ANDERSON have the visitors trophies caught in their crossfire - skittling 5 prizes in as many months.

HART, fined for practising his air swing before the round, did not join the President, Caterer and Chief Dobber in the Airies Choir, but qualified for the Bradman - having a healthy score of 30 points!

JOHN O'MEARA arrived at Avalon prepared for a personal duel with Dawson Carroll - the stake, a sight-seeing flight down the coast in the Palm Beach float 'plane. But, alas, Dawson was "hors de golfe" and taking it easy - elsewhere.

John promptly teamed up with hotshot Neil Shackle and challenged Manfred and Bill Epps for the price of the compulsory raffle tickets - with little to lose and less chance of so doing.

The match was more even than anticipated, notwithstanding a blind, high flying, wedge shot, by Neil Shackle, that plumed down the throat of the 10th cup.

Manfred broke the deadlock for his team with an unassailable 5 pointer, followed by a vital 1 pointer, when the rest of the field shared ~~slots~~ ^{slots} - to win the day!

Gauging by the standard of play, Dawson would have enjoyed the aerial view of the beaches.

THE LINDENBERG KO Competition starts today - the best 16 players qualify and play the second round in March. Any players aware of their inability to contest all matches, from March to June, are requested to advise Captain Handicapper, Michael Harrison - it would be of great assistance when making the draw.

NEXT MONTH is SMALL/RAYNER DAY, always a good one, bring a visitor or two.

Good Golfing.....Bill Epps, Editor.
