APRIL 1998

WELCOME to Sophie Amalia BEALE, born March 31 at Mona Vale Hospital. Sophie weighed in at .002807 tonne - that's 6lb 3oz on the old scale. Congratulations to Anthony and Debbie.

NEIL SHACKLE is today's donor. Neil was one of 12 Lizards competing in the Jim Small inspired WAL HILL trophy, at Mangrove Mountain on the 4th Sunday last month. After failing a 'short arm parade' in the clubhouse, Neil was up for the price of 12 schooners! Without any ado he proceeded to the bar, before the gleeful throng could confuse him with a conglomerate of requests for preferred beer types, and had a dozen schooners of BLACK delivered to the bemused, lager type, drinkers.

JIM SMALL, runner up the previous year, played his best round ever on the 5363m Mountain course, winning the day with 41 points off 14. Chris Mooney's 39 pointer was not far behind. Jim's flash of brilliance dented his Lizards and Mangrove Mountain handicaps.

EARLY ARRIVALS Michael Harrison, Andy Warner and Graham Meyer played on Saturday in the Mangrove Mountain Medal competition, with host Jim Small. Michael, playing off 5, parred the course for a round of minus 5! He came in ahead of the local pro., but fell short of the winning score.

THE MOUNTAIN course holds no pit falls for Ian Simpson, Chris Mooney, Michael Morgan, Dave Collins and Colin Lacey - they, like Jim, are members of the club.

SMALL/RAYNER DAY, with 21 members and 3 visitors, in weather less clement than inclement, produced the following results:

LIZARDS 1st Wal Hill 36 Points off 39 Handicap
LIZARDS 2nd Anthony Beale 34 Points off 10 Handicap
VISITORS 1st John Bavin 30 Points off 24 Handicap
VISITORS 2nd Jake Small

BEST FRONT NINE Chris Mooney 20 Points off 15 Handicap
BEST BACK NINE Ian Simpson 16 Points off 27 Handicap.
NEAREST THE PINS 5th Hole Neil Shackle
9th Hole Andy Warner
LONGEST DRIVES 18- Handicap 8th Hole Anthony Beale
19+ Handicap 6th John Beale
BRADMAN Andy Warner 2 Points off 12 Handicap

WAL HILL showed he could handle a heavy track better than the sprinters. His neat 36 pointer was his first win since June 96! Well played Wal.

CONSISTENT VISITOR Colin Lacey - Bradman Jan, Feb and March - was fined for packing 5 poems into his application for Lizard membership. Notwithstanding his literacy skills and golfing prowess, he passed the general physical requirements, being voted in unanimously. Congratulations Colin.

FINES, some were:

Hart	standing under the Lindenberg draw board and asking "How do I find out who I am playing today?"
Wal Hill	arriving late at Lizards in a new car and not knowing how to silence the vehicle's alarm.
Handicapper	being the only player in the Lindenberg to get a shot back.
Chief Dobber	a credit fine for having the good sense to come in out of the rain.
Jim Small	forgetting his donor's trophy.
Neil Shackle	breaking another two of the few clubs remaining in his new set.
Stretch	starting an oration with "If the Lizards ever get organised"
