WELCOME to PRESIDENTS DAY Mk52, the LINDENBERG SEMI-FINALS and a pleasant round of golf on a crisp Autumn morning.

IAN SIMPSON is enjoying his tenure and holding the Club on an even keel with a balanced budget; a reasonable flow of visitors; a healthy influx of new members; a new issue of shirts and lizard glasses; a break in the drought conditions to enliven the parched fairways and his inclusion of a new respiratory system into the Weber - transforming the device from an incinerator to a well modulated oven. He is currently tidying up arrangements for the AGM, to be conducted in the Sports Bar of the Dee Why RSL on Tuesday 7th July, 6.30 for 7, and is pleased to be today's donor.

SHACKLE DAY, with 21 members and Noel Quinlan, produced the following results:

LIZARDS 1st Manfred Wagner 39 Points off 28 Handicap

LIZARDS 2nd Alan Lewis 38 Points off 10 Handicap

VISITORS 1st Noel Quinlan 36 Points off 23 Handicap

BEST FRONT NINE Geoff Warren 23 Points off 20 Handicap

BEST BACK NINE Dave Collins 19 Points off 8 Handicap.

NEAREST THE PINS 4th Hole Noel Quinlan

5th Hole Geoff Warren

LONGEST DRIVES 18- Handicap 6th Hole Dave Collins

19+ Handicap 7th Colin Lacey

BRADMAN Members Wal Hill 21 Points off 38 Handicap

Visitors Noel Quinlan 36 Points off 23 Handicap

MANFRED burst from the starters box with renewed vigour to take the Neil Shackle Trophy - his first in 26 months! Congratulations Manfred.

ALAN LEWIS "back from a spell" showed he could still find his way around the course.

NOEL QUINLAN, with a neat 36 pointer, won the visitors trophy, a nearest the pin and, without opposition, earned the visitors Bradman.

FINES, some were:

Colin Lacey playing his first round as a member and not winning a prize

Dave Collins admitting he had purchased an all pink golf outfit

Hart scoring a 3 pointer on the par 3 10th, after opening his attack on the hole with an air swing

John O'Meara playing a shot from the second fairway, bouncing it off Vicki's roof and coming to rest on a table where four ladies were enjoying a cuppa, then asking if he could play through.

→ paid to his quest by winning the "Bradman".

LINDENBERG second round results:

Dave Gilchrist defeated Wal Hill 6 and 5. Wal being overall stableford winner the previous month, put Anthony Beale defeated Michael Harrison on the 19th. A repeat of their match last year - but a much closer finish.

Neil Shackle defeated Michael Morgan 1up. Neil must have played well as Michael is a hard nut to crack in the Lindenberg, being winner in 94 and runner up in 95 and 97.

Ian Simpson defeated Glen castle 2 and 1. ~~A~~ A well deserved win, which went well against the tea lady's' selection for this match.

LINDENBERG SEMI-FINALS draw:

Dave Gilchrist vs. Anthony Beale (current Titleholder)

Ian Simpson vs. Neil Shackle

The tea Lady considers that the 2 low markers have little protection from a 40 pointer, but would not put the players current forms through her crystal-balled abacus, "as it would spoil the fun of the chase.

THE PORT MACQUARIE TRIP for this year is to be held on the weekend of Saturday October 31st and Sunday November 1st

NEXT MONTH is VICE-PRESIDENTS DAY, the FINAL of the LINDENBERG, FATHER and SON DAY, a good time to bring a visitor and the day ALL ANNUAL TROPHIES should be returned to the SHED - for engraving and presentation at the AGM on July 7.

Good Golfing.....Bill Epps, Editor.
