THE LIZARDS/RSL match, on the books for last month, was cancelled due to the breaking of the drought - the first washout the Lizards have suffered since the GRIMES/BIRD day in January 1988.

REGARDLESS of the downpour and the course taking on the appearance of Avalon Beach at high tide, 13 Lizards turned up at the Shed - two of them, Wal Hill and Stretch, left the leaking shelter - paddling off to the 1st tee and drifting into the deluge. When they reappeared on the second fairway Wal was caked in mud, as a result of cartwheeling down the steep slope. He went down again about 20 metres from the green. Regaining his feet, he played a chip which made the green and floated into the cup. Wal fished the ball from the hole and threw it to the non-existent crowd of cheering spectators. The two players returned to the Shed for a well deserved drip dry and a beer.

THREE RSL members called in to check our mental stability and agreed that today would be a more suitable time to conduct the match.

THE AVALON RSL team, ushered in by players like Chris Reid, Brad Landy, Bob Tiffen, Mark Boyle, Jeff Stuart and Tony Eccles, is keen to notch up their 3rd win in 4 matches.
Good luck to all contestants.

LIZARD OS travellers, Colin Lacey (UK) and Dave Collins (United States of Texas) should be back on course for todays game.

CAPTAIN ANDY could be slipping a "Custard Ball" event into the days doings.

LIZARD local rules for the day:
15cm preferred lie on fairway.
Long drive to be on cut fairway.
Bunker may be raked and ball replaced without penalty.
A ball in the scrub may be replaced on the fairway for a penalty of one - whether the ball can be found or not.

Good Golfing
