OCT 98

WELCOME to the PETER GRIMES TRADE DAY.

PETER, possibly the Lizards most prolific winner of the Club Championship, joined in May 1986, was President in 1990 and been a donor since Jan. 88 - the day the Lizards were washed out, for the second time since the Club kicked off in 1946.

Great to see Peter, out of "retirement", and back on course at Avalon for his donors day.

THE COMBINED WARNER - DELLA DAYS, with 22 Lizards, a contingent of 19 players from the Avalon Beach RSL Golf Club and 5 visitors, filled the walls of the tally room with the following results;

FINES, some were

GORDON DONALD serving cold hot-dogs.

CATERERS running out of tomato sauce.

TONY ECCLES getting a beer after 1½ holes

JIM SMALL accusing Dave Gilchrist of being a nuisance, even when he is not here.

MATT BROWN being the only player in his team to "wipe"
the custard ball.

SIMON CONVERY instead of losing his custard ball, he cut it in half with his 2 iron.

BY THE TIME the bottom of the mega-esky was becoming visible, the Lizards and "Dolphins" were looking forward to their 5th annual encounter in August 99 - while savouring the remnants of an enjoyable day on the course.

NEXT MONTH is BEALE/BOND DAY, bring a visitor or two.

Good Golfing.....Editor.
