APRIL 1999

WELCOME to NEIL SHACKLE DAY; the Quarter Finals of the LINDENBERG K.O. Competition and the 10th month on the Lizard Calendar.

NEIL will be on hand, doing his stint as Donor and lining up on the grid as a contender in the Lindenberg quarter finals - having deposed the 4 time winner and a short priced favourite for the 1999 title. Our thanks for the donorship and good luck in the Lindenberg quest.

DAWSON CARROLL, as a goodwill gesture on his birthday, presented the Club with a magnum of Wyndham Estate Chardonnay, to be included in the prize list. Thank you Dawson.

THE DAVID RAYNOR MEMORIAL DAY, with 20 members and zilch visitors produced the following results;

LIZARDS 1st Hart Schwarz 43 Points off 36 Handicap

LIZARDS 2nd Col Lacey 39 Points off 33 Handicap

BEST SCRATCH Neil Shackle 29 Points

VICE PRESIDENT Hart Schwarz celebrated his debut on the prizewinner's dais in January - instead of retiring gracefully into modest oblivion, whilst licking the wounds of his ruptured handicap, he has dived back into the honey pot with addictive vigour. Hart is to be congratulated on the 5 shot improvement on his personal best.

COL LACEY earned his second ever trip to the pay window with a faultless 39 pointer - picking up a nearest the pin in the same swoop.

SEPTEMBER, 1995, was the last occasion we had nothing more than a nor' easter coming through the visitors turnstile. Since then we have attracted only one visitor in April, May and July of last year.

LINDENBERG first round results:

Chris Mooney	def	Ken Bond	By default
Michael Harrison	def	Manfred Wagner	2 and 1
Dave Gilchrist	def	John O'Meara	2 up
Jim Small	def	Bill Epps	4 and 2
Neil Shackle	def	Andy Warner	5 and 3
Hart Schwarz	def	Garry Bird	7 and 6
Geoff Warren	def	Ian Simpson	on 19th
Glen Castle	def	Tony Della	on 20th

WITH THE DUST of the first round still settling, the Tea Lady considers the hard nuts to crack, in the run down to the tape, will be Glen Castle, Chris Mooney and Hart Schwarz.

LINDENBERG QUARTER FINAL DRAW

Neil Shackle	vs	Chris Mooney
