CHRIS MOONEY, using Neil Shackles' twin wins in July-August as an aiming mark, won in September on a count back and backed up last month to seal his second success. A triple header today could open a new page in the Lizards record book. Go for it Chris!

Sunday Visitor David Calleja has bagged two seconds and a win in his ^{last} 3 rounds. Following his 45 pointer last month he approached the 6 foot plus, ominous looking Captain Handicapper and requested his handicap be reduced by 4 strokes. DONE! replied the soft hearted Manfred.

MICHAEL HARRISON collected a golf ball for his round of 3 over the card and managed to supplement his trophy by winning the raffle.

DAWSON CARROLL, fresh from Ireland, was seen milling around in the Shed - a couple of months earlier than anticipated! Welcome back and good luck in your quest to win your own trophy on Christmas Carrol day - for the second time.

CURRENT HOLDER of the Dawson Carroll Trophy is Andy Warner - on a comeback from Chris Mooney.

PRESIDENT HART, stand in caterer on the day, provided a sumptuous lunch.

ANDY WARNER has elected to fill the catering void today.

NIFTY PLATE weekend 6-7 Nov 99 at JAMBEROO GOLF COURSE

The picturesque ~~setting~~ ^{setting}, with a creek bisecting 6 fairways, proved a testing ground for the annual Nev Meredith Plate.

Fifteen players hit off in the preliminary round on Saturday afternoon. John O'Meara, on the par 3 14th, was out of bounds by a foot when his tee shot rolled through a strand wire fence. Leaning on the wire, to retrieve his ball, he was jolted back to reality by the electric fence. The ball is still there and John ended up well clear of the site.

The deciding round kicked off, in ideal weather, on Sunday morning - by early afternoon the following results were on the board:

NIFTY PLATE 1999	Hart Schwarz	40 Points off 41 Handicap
HIZARDS 2 nd	Neil Shackie	35 Points off 12 Handicap
HIZARDS 3 rd	Jim Small	34 Points off 14 Handicap

HARRIS prior knowledge of the gamblers layout proved too good for the spearhead of runners up. Congratulations - not only for winning but organising the event. The course, accommodation, meals and hospitality were all first class!

* NEXT MONTH is CHRISTMAS CARROLL DAY - bring a gift and receive a gift.

Good Golfing

Bill Epps, Editor.

* NEVILLE sends his best wishes to all Lizards for Christmas and a special Cherio to the Nifty Plate competitors.
