FEBRUARY 2000

WELCOME to FOUNDATION - LIFE MEMBERS DAY - the day we pay homage to our founder Leon List, the man who had the foresight and energy to create something for the enjoyment of others. Leon, known colloquially as The Lizard, was the first ~~ever~~ President and, in subsequent years, the first Life Member. Long live the Lizards.

DONORS for the day are Life members Bill Sheehan, Gordon Donald, Bill Epps, Garry Bird and Andrew Warner.

GLEN CASTLE, a Lizard since mid 96, had his first win in Jan 97, followed this success with a string of handicap eroding second places ~~until~~ until he triggered a handicap avalanche with his 44 point slam dunk to secure his second win.

COLIN LACEY celebrated his second win the previous month when he claimed the Dawson Carroll Trophy by two shots from Neil Shackle - and suffered a loss of five shots. In a valiant attempt to rebound back to the top of the heap, he was foiled by Stretch's unpredicted burst of brilliance.

DAVID CALLEIJA, college student and ~~mini~~^{mini} golfing prodigy ^{of} has shaved 13 shots off his handicap since he appeared on the scene last July. His defeat ~~by~~ Bruce Howe for the Visitors Trophy brings his record to 3 wins and 3 seconds in the past 7 months. Rumour has it the handicappers are saving up to buy him a one way ticket to Bali. Keep up the good work David.

VISITOR BRUCE HOWE rated his first mention in the F.O.L. as Bradman in December 98, since then, playing off 8, he has clocked up 3 wins and a second. Bruce's bid for membership worked its way to the top of the Presidents WPB last month and following the reading of the application and other shenanigans, the members were in unanimous accord where-upon President Hart dubbed the applicant and issued him with the usual Lizard hardware. Congratulations Bruce - we hope you enjoy a long and fruitful association with the Lizards.

FINES, some were

Bruce Howe - preparing for the day by practicing at The Australian

Colin Lacey, Assist. Handicapper - complaining about his handicap

Hart - spending more time in the bunkers than Adolf

Hart and Michael Harrison - suggesting to Frank Van Whatsisname that he should join the Lizards. The nominee was so excited he hurried off to the driving range to improve his game, fell off the mat, and broke his leg.
