May, 2000

WELCOME to PRESIDENT'S DAY, the day a President can see the glow of easy street at the end of the funnel. Hart has had a fruitful year, introducing the members to the picturesque Jamheroo course; putting on a luxurious King prawn lunch, with all the trimmings; providing new style Lizard glasses and approaching the end of his Chairmanship with more loot in the Lizards ledger than his original allotment. He has even reduced the few addicted hecklers to repeating the same inane cliches month after month - which are grating more on the audience than on the speaker. Hart is applying the finishing touches to the AGM - to be held on July 4. Final details next month.

SHACKLE DAY, with 20 members and visitors, produced the following results:

LIZARDS 1 st	Hart Schwarz	41 points off 22 Handicap

APRIL

Jake Small and Andy Warner

PRES HART celebrated his first win in 14 months - and his 3rd since joining the Club! As a quarter finalist in the Lindenberg he was pitted against John O'Meara. John's 36 points were good enough to beat Hart's 41 in the match play. Hart must have had a couple of plots while John scored on every hole.

DAVID CAHILL has been reducing his handicap of 40, in leaps and bounds, since Oct. 99. His last win was in Jan with 39 off 27. He has bounced back onto the Handicapper's anvil with a lumpy 48. Keep up the good work David.

LINDBENBERG QUARTER FINALS RESULTS.

Bill Epps	def	Tony Della	1 up
Glen Castle	def	Garry Bird	1 up
John O'Meara	def	Hart Schwarz	1 up
Neil Shackle	def	Michael Morgan	5 and 4

Garry Bird, Hart Schwarz and Michael Morgan earned entry to the Quarter Finals with 40 pointers and were listed as short priced favourites - they were all defeated.

Tony Della collected second prize on the day - and he too was defeated!

LINDENBERG SEMI-FINALS DRAW:

Bill Epps vs Glen Castle
John O'Meara vs Neil Shackle

Neil Shackle, one of the few Lizard A graders, has never won the Lindenberg - this looks like his best chance to give it a good shake. Good luck to all contenders in today's matches.

FINES, some were:

Neil Shackle	returning a NTP marker he had in his bag for more than 2 years.
Dave Gilchrist and Neil Shackle	deserting the Shed to visit Vicki's shop for a 3 course breakfast.
Phil Peddar	living next door to Dave Gilchrist.
Mamfred, Captain Handicapper	asking Garry Bird "what is my handicap".
Stretch	upon reaching the semi-finals of the Lindenberg did state "I would love to go right through and win, so I could have my name engraved alongside the prolific winners like Dave Gilchrist and Andy Warner"

NEXT MONTH is DAVE GILCHRIST'S VICE-PRESIDENTS DAY, the FINALS of the LINDENBERG and FATHER AND SON DAY. Bring a son, step-son, son-in-law or grandson and win an annual trophy
