NOVEMBER 2000

WELCOME to MORGAN/MOONEY DAY MKII. At this time last year, Chris was on the brink of a record breaking 3rd consecutive monthly win! Michael, his co-donor, mentor, sports psychologist and playing partner was beside the budding champ for every step of the fateful 18 holes. When the dust settled, MICHAEL, had defeated Chris, and the rest of the field, by scoring a faultless 40 points - notching up his first win since March 1996. Halleluiah*!?

CASTLE HILL PLATE DAY, with 19 Lizards and 3 Visitors, produced the following results:

MICHAEL HARRISON: WOT a round of golf - 3 under the card! The feat would be more believable if Michael had achieved it on a course with larger, softer greens. Michael parred the course as a visitor in November 91 and, on joining, became the best player the Lizards have ever had on their books. Prior Cock.of.the.Walk was Allistar Campbell, a Scot, who had played in the British Open, but he failed to par Avalon. The editor of FOL in 1974 wrote that the best scores in 1965/66 were A. Campbell 67 and G. Donald 68. Congratulations Michael!

FINES, some were

Wal Hill	bringing Glen Castle to Lizards in his "stretch" limo and; engaging Vicki's bird in a battle of wits - and not winning.
Jim Small	announcing in a loud voice "I am now a Director of Mangrove Mountain Golf Club and should be treated with respect."
Michael Morgan	wearing therapeutic sandals in the belief they sponsored brain growth and; spawning a two foot brain cell

THE ANNUAL TRIP to NIFTYLAND took place on the weekend 4th & 5th of November. 14 Lizards descended upon the town, most arriving Friday afternoon and after taking up lodgings at the Aquatic Caravan Park, they proceeded to the Port Hotel. Once safely ensconced in the public bar, a sizeable attack was mounted upon the rediscovered Reschs Fountain, and the local football club was relieved of 5 of their choicest meat and seafood trays. Later highlights of the evening included Gordon Donalds fish eating act and the complete crew of Lizards piled into the Life Members cabin for a drink and quiet chat.

THE FOLLOWING DAY saw the sore heads greeted at the Emerald Downs Course by Country Member Neville Meredith, his stepson and former Lizard Ray Walsham, and their guests. Under threatening skies 14 members and 5 visitors took to the improving course, with Michael Morgan playing well enough to get his name on the Nifty Plate. After the game the Lizards stocked up and retired to the Aquatic where the meat trays were demolished after being prepared by temporary baggageman Wal Hill. The heavens opened up soon after the presentations, forcing most back to the cabins and a comparatively early night.

A BRIGHT SUNDAY saw approximately 10 Lizards complete 18 holes at the course before the heavens opened up again, fortunately all got off the course in time. Most of the visitors returned to Sydney over the following 12 hours, with Hart, Michael Harrison, Neil Winterton and Frank going on to Forster for more golf.

NEXT MONTH is CHRISTMAS CARROLL DAY, sponsored by Dawson Carroll. Dawson should have arrived from Ireland and be able to enjoy a closing ceremony for the 20th Century. Remind your visitors to bring a present.
