MARCH 2001

WELCOME to DAVE RAYNER MEMORIAL DAY. The Nov 87 issue of F.O.L reports: "THE GRIZZ and JIM SMALL slurped up the visitors trophies in their last fling before becoming Lizard backbenchers. Both aspirants read their application for membership to an empty paddock, the bemused members cringing behind any available cover. The President, attuned more to their wealth, rather than any moral values, had them signed up while the voting masses emerged from the scrub."

OTHER VISITORS, on that fateful day, included Geoff Warren , Neil Shackle and Wal Hill.

THE MEMBERS, as well as the Grizz, enjoyed his 11 years with the Club,

JIM SMALL is doner for the MEMORIAL DAY

FOUNDATION – LIFE MEMBERS DAY, with 23 members and 7 visitors produced the results on page 3 :

DAVID CALLEIJA notched up his first win since becoming a Lizard in June – and lost 6 strokes for his commendable effort! Don't feel too sorry for the youthful prodigy – he still has a couple of shots up his sleeve and improves every time he walks onto a course.

JAKE SMALL, cadet visitor of long standing and Bradman the previous month, burst through the tape for his first victory. Congratulations Jake.

FINES, some were :

Chris Mooney and John O'Meara
Courtney Kingston

Harry Lemmetty

David Calleija

usurping senior member status by using electric buggies.
enquiring whether he could pay his dues with frequent flyer points.
dropping out, with a dull thud, at the half way mark, due to a self inflicted night out.
not attending for the past 4 months because he was winning Junior Pennant Matches .

LIFE MEMBER BILL SHEEHAN set the cat among the greyhounds by succumbing to intensive care, in Wauchope hospital , a few days prior to last months golf day.

HOW was a complacent bunch of Lizards going to cause the tablecloths, ^{knives,} forks, salad bowls, condiments, cutting boards, carving knives, glasses, pewters, cooks tools, apron, sliced bread, bread rolls, full strength beer, lite beer, ice, ~~6Q~~ ^{90l} litre ice box, esky, latest issue of F.O.L and the Lizard bell to be delivered to the course AND the Shed , "Bar" and cooking facility to be set up, complete with seating for all, prior to the arrival of the members and visitors ??

EASY – five members, with assistance of others, filled the bill, with a minimum of glitches and no time to spare. Well done fellers – just as well the Lizards coped with the task, otherwise we would have had to belay referring to the Plant Engineer-Baggage Man as a useless old fart.

THE JAMBEROO WEEKEND. 3-4 March, attracted a record turn out of 14 members and 3 visitors

DAVE COLLINS fresh from Dallas, Texas, on a business trip, ripped 2 days from his tight skedoolie to enjoy rounds on the Jamberoo and Calderwood courses

RESULT OF THESE MATCHES ARE ON PAGE 4.

FRANK VAN HEYNINGAN suffered the only mishap. While cruising around the course in a golf cart , his clubs took a dive from a bridge – the bag and clubs plunging heads first into the mud at the bottom of the creek, effectively taking the shine off his second nine

ALL CONTENDERS GAVE THE WEEKEND 10 out of 10 and ^{are} on the waiting list for the next Jamberoo jaunt.

ON THE HOMEFRONT, the PRESIDENTS DAY IN May will be a special day for visitors, with additional prizes for place getters plus best front and back nines, nearest the pins and long drives. Start planning now on how many visitors you could bring to help spread the wealth.

THE LINDNBERG ROUND 1 DRAW, and list of reserves, is on the bottom of the page 4.

Good luck to all contenders

NEXT MONTH IS NEIL SHACKLE DAY

Good Golfing Bill Epps, Editor.
