APRIL

2001

WELCOME to SHACKLE DAY and the Quarter Finals of the LINDENBERG. Neil had won 4 dozen Lizard glasses, as our longest running visitor, before joining the Club in November, 88. These days he seems to be a test pilot for high flying metal woods. Having mastered a bubble shaft Titleist recently, he is currently in the throes of taming the latest long shafted, light headed, sexy looking Callaway weapon. He has established that a robust contact, on the enlarged sweet spot, blasts the ball out of sight - permanently - and is proving to be an expensive experiment. Neil is working on the problem.

We thank him for his donership.

GLEN CASTLE, Bradman the previous month, improved his score by 14 shots to celebrate his 3rd Lizards win since joining in July 96. Well Done Stretch.

JAKE SMITH, Bradman in January, bagged his second win in 2 months - and lost 14 shots in the process! Congratulations Jake, you have burst through the beginners barrier and are on your way as a golfer.

FINES, some were:

Wal Hill

Chris Mooney

Michael Morgan

Tony Della

stating "I had 18 points today - 8 on the front and 8 on the back"

having beaten Michael Harrison in the Lindenberg, was heard to say "This proves that cream rises to the top" interminable delay in playing his ball, allegedly to unnerve his Lindenberg opponent.

not knowing that Michael was innocent of the charge - he always plays that way.

SEB Round 1

Reserves Neil Shackle, Wat Hill, Glen Castle and Andrew Warner were mobilised to replace four of the five late scratchings. Results were:

Neil Shackle	def	Neil Winterton	2/1
Michael Morgan	def	Tony Della	4/2
Chris Mooney	def	Michael Harrison	4/2
Wat Hill	def	Ian Simpson	Walk Over
John O'Meara	def	Jim Small	1 up
David Gilchrist	def	Garry Bird	4/3
Manfred Wagner	def	Glen Castle	19th
Harimut Schwarz	def	Andrew Warner	2/1

Half off to the First Round survivors.

LINDENBERG QUARTER FINAL DRAW

Neil Shackle	vs	Michael Morgan
Chris Mooney	vs	Wat Hill
John O'Meara	vs	David Gilchrist
Manfred Wagner	vs	Harimut Schwarz

The tea lady has invested a dollar on each of the players in the left hand column.

NEXT MONTH is PRESIDENT'S DAY, LINDENBERG SEMI-FINALS and a SPECIAL DAY for VISITORS. There will be additional visitors prizes for place getters, nearest the pins, long drives, best front and back nines and Paradman. The President requests that we all make an effort to bring a visitor or two.

Good Golfing
