CHRIS Mooney, having celebrated his first winners downer for 15 months in January, has bounced back with a 41 pointer - propelling him past the post one shot ahead of Noel Quinlan.

NOEL QUINLAN, with a faultless round 4 under his handicap, notched up 10 points over the last 3 holes - leaving himself one shot short of winning on a countback.

LINDENBERG FINAL SEMI FINAL results:

Chris Mooney def Neil Shackle by default
David Gilchrist def Manfred Wagner 2 and 1

The Gilchrist - Wagner encounter was an evenly matched affair - scores were all square at the 12th. David moved to 2up after 15 and 16.17 were halved.
Had Neil Shackle been able to play, he would have found Chris Mooney's 7 over the card a hard nut to crack.

LINDENBERG FINAL: This event is a replay of the 22nd grand final, played in 1999, when David and Chris, both with a handicap of 31, were keen to win their first Lindenberg Title. David stormed in on that occasion, winning 5 and 4. Today David is playing off 20 and Chris 11. It should be a great match. Good Luck to both contestants.

THE FATHER and SON COMPETITION puts the finishing touch on the Lizards year - the exclusive one day event that puts the winners in the record book. Results have been:

1995 Chris & John Mooney

1996 Jim & Matthew Small

1997 Jim & Matthew Small

1998 Chris & John Mooney

1999 No Starters

2000 John & Joseph O'Meara

This year Hart & Grant Schwartz could give it a shake and if Dennis, Glen and Matthew Castle turn up they could constitute 3 more teams.

NOMINATION FORMS for positions on the Lizards Committee are available in the Shed. The nominations are to be signed by the nominator, seconder and nominee. The completed forms are invaluable to the Returning Officer during the election of officers at the AGM.

THE AGM will be conducted in the Scores Bar, DYRSL Club on Tuesday 3 July. Roll up, between 6.30 and 7.00pm - the meal will be at 7.30pm.

THE LIZARDS GOLF CLUB will pick up the Tab for the steaks and salads. Members and Visitors to pay for any Oysters, Prawn Cocktails etc. as required, at the "Check Out". All drinks are available at bar prices.

DON'T MISS the Lizards End of Year night out!
